CARNIVAL SHOWS DATED IN ROSEBURG

Week's Stand, Beginning Monday, Sponsored by School Band.

The Hildebrand United Shows, one of the west's largest carnival companies, will be in Roseburg Monday, May 25, for a week's stand, sponsored by the Roseburg School band. The band will share in the proceeds from the attractions, and will use its portion of the money toward the expenses of the forthcoming trip to the Portland Rose Festival.

The shows will be set up at Rice and Jackson streets, where permission has been given for the use of city-owned lots. Due to the size of the carnival this year, grounds formerly used here do not provide sufficient space, necessitating a new location.

The equipment used is of such proportions that a fleet of trucks and trailers two miles long is required to move the organization.

Free attractions will include the Three Jacks, highest aerial act in the world, and Captain Charles Sodderbert, world's highest high diver.

Numerous riding devices are to be provided, with several small rides for the small children. In addition to these rides, the carnival will offer a number of attractions, inucluding Lillian LaFrance, premier lady motordrome driver; Frog boy, Hawaiian show; Lady Elysia's monkey and dog circus; human fish, Jolly Joe, who weighs 610 pounds; reptile and marine monsters, hill billies, Mickey Mouse, artists and models, athletic show, contortionist, Red's Cycling Celons and many others.

A matinee will be given Saturday with a reduced price for children on all rides. Children are to be admitted free at the gate throughout the entire week.

The carnival will open at 6 p. m. Monday.
