THEATRES

AT SHERRYS—LAST DAY "THE STORM"

Masterpiece of Stage and Screen Has Premier at Sherrys Yesterday

The clean, tangy aroma of the Northwoods fairly floats from the screen at the Sherry Theatre, where the Universal-Jewel attraction "The Storm" is being shown this week. It was greeted with real enthusiasm at the premier last night and it is safe to class it among the really great photoplays of the decade.

A powerful story to begin with, the scenic investure of the great snow storm scene, and the forest fire, make it a marvel stage-craft on the screen and one realizes why it established a record as one of the finest productions ever staged in the legitimate theatres. The film has dominated in New York and elsewhere the success of George Broadhurst's and Lawrence McCormick's play.

Honor Peters, star of a dozen famed portrayals, and one of the most popular actors of the day, handles the leading male role in a magnificent manner, with the performance of Virginia Valli—who plays opposite to Peters—likewise standing forth as one of the brightest gems in her crown of successes.

It was photographed against a background of deep-timbered valleys, long trails of silent forests, and the awesome white of a winter-bound country. Against this scenically perfect setting, the story rushes along in a series of dramatic moments, each greater and more thrilling than its predecessor, until the final dynamic fire scene in which the spectator is almost swept to his feet.

The third angle of the triangle is played by Matt Moore and this finished actor gives a flawless interpretation that makes one hate him, even while they realize that he is only playing a character.

WESLEY BARRY IN NEW SCREEN PLAY

Freckled Movie Celebrity Will Grace Silver Sheet in "School Days."

Freckle-faced Wesley Barry, the inimitable movie celebrity, will grace the screen of the Arcade Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday in his latest starring vehicle, "School Days," made from the Gene Edwards classic of the same name.

The very mention of the words "School Days" holds an appeal for young and old, and it is said that every mother who has boys, every man who remembers his boyhood, every human being who can thrill to the joys, the disappointments, the pranks and the glory of boyhood will gloat over the trials and tribulations of speck Brown, better known to the screen world as Wesley Barry.

Briefly, the story centers around a small town lad who loves the old swimmin' hole and his dog, Hippy, better than anything else in the world. He meets a wealthy uncle who sends him East to get an education. Here he meets many youngsters of wealthy parents, and he finds himself out of the social swim. He is beset by many trials and tribulations, and finally he goes back home to his faithful dog and his little country sweetheart via the freight train route.

There are said to be many other interesting highlights in the picture, in addition to a cast composed of a number of players who have graced the screen in scores of productions. The cast includes, in support of Wesley Barry, Nellie P. Spaulding, Marjorie Seddon, Jerome Blackburn, J. H. Gilmore, John Galsworthy, Eveline Sherman, Francis X. Conlan and Arnold Lucy. The production was made by Harry Rapf and directed by William Nigh.

CLOUDS VEIL THE ECLIPSE

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Clouds prevented the German-Dutch expedition from taking photographs at Christmas Island in the Pacific, intended to test the Einstein theory, according to a report Monday to the Astronomical institute at Potsdam.

A few pictures of the sun's corona, however, were taken through the clouds. These may prove of service in the investigation. It is assumed here that despite the unfavorable weather, the expedition was able to make other important observations in connection with the eclipse.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS THE DOOR TO LONG LIVING.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.—Adv.
