"Thy Name Is Woman" On for Last Time Tonight at Sherrys.

"Thy Name is Woman" is the dramatic comet of the year. This new Fred Niblo production for Metro opened last night at the Sherry theater and had the audience almost gasping for breath at the fire of its love scenes and the power of its climaxes. The acting and atmosphere were so vivid that every spectator must have felt as if he were being brushed by the comet's blazing trail.

The credit for this accomplishment appears to rest surely on the shoulders of Mr. Niblo and his cast of players, the latter including such favorites as Ramon Navarro, Barbara La Marr, William V. Mong, Edith Roberts, Robert Edeson, Wallace MacDonald and Claire MacDowell. That cast is one of the strongest of the season. Certain it is that no other combination of players has succeeded in getting over as better the illusion of reality.

The story, of course, has a lot to do with it. It concerns the eternal conflict of men over a beautiful woman. An old smuggler in the Spanish Pyrenees has a young wife who is sought by several other men. A young soldier is sent from the garrison to make love to her and thus learn enough about the smuggler to effect his capture. The soldier and wife fall in love and the struggle is on. With this as a starting point, the picture works up to great dramatic climaxes, with the final solution coming only after a tragedy.

The unusual chance for rich, warm atmosphere with the background of life in the Pyrenees has been fully taken advantage of by Mr. Niblo.

Comedy showing, "Why Men Leave Home."

All-Star Cast in A Knockout Story At Arcade.

Here's a cast that is all-star in every sense of the word—with three handsome leading men in one picture—and that's something.

Red La Roque, Ricardo Cortez and Allan Simpson play principal supporting roles opposite Gloria Swanson in her new Paramount picture, "A Society Scandal," an Allan Dwan production to be shown at the Arcade theatre today.

Surely you will remember La Roque in William de Mille's "Don't Call It Love" and in the other famous brother's "The Ten Commandments," and you recall Cortez in "The Call of the Canyon" and "The Next Corner?" But who is this Simpson fellow, you say? Shame on you! Why he's the man who made the collar ad famous, was in "The Glimpses of the Moon" and with Bebe Daniels in "The Exchers."

And that's not the half of it. Here's a few in the supporting cast which makes the leading players step some to win the laurels. Mrs. Ida Waterman, a stage and screen actress of the old school, Thelma Morgan Converse, prominent society matron making a try of the picture game, Fraser Coulter, Yvonne Hughes, Catherine Proctor and a host of others. How's that for a cast?

Even if the story wasn't much to talk about, "A Society Scandal" would go across big on the merits of the cast alone—but what a story it is! And it's all about New York and the fashionable homes of the rich on Long Island. See Southampton where the social loungers have their tea and cake, ultra-modern week-end parties — and gowns that'll knock your eye out.

Here's Gloria in all her glory and with all her great acting skill shown in "Zaza" and "The Humming Bird" besides.

Now that we've told you something about it, if you miss it it's your own fault. But it's a safe bet you won't miss it.

Berlin Begins to Vibrate To Home-Made Ukulele.

BERLIN (AP) — The ukulele craze has hit Berlin with a bang. Music dealers appear determined to put a little ukulele in every home and, as the government collects a fat tax on all musical instruments, the idea has not been opposed in official circles. The tax collected on the ukulele goes into a general fund, a part of which is allotted to say off reparations.

Special ukulele music and songs such as "Ukulele Melodie," "Say it with a Ukulele" and "Try me on your uke," are out and given away as a premium to all purchasers of an instrument. Instructions how to learn to play the contrivance and bring out all that is best in string vibration have been issued in simple language "so that even a child may play after a few days of study and practice."

Three Face Unusual Charge.

SALEM, Ore.—R. J. Smith, C. F. Smith and F. R. Morrison entered pleas of not guilty in justice court on charges of refusing to assist a federal warden in extinguishing a fire in the national forest near Gates, Marion county. The date of the trial has not yet been set.

Five Out of Seven Need The Combination of Port Wine and Olive Oil Portolive
