1936 CHEVROLET TO BOW HERE SATURDAY

Roseburg and vinicity will get their first view Saturday of the new 1937 Chevrolet. It will go on public display at the Hansen Motor Co., at 8 a. m., immediately after the breakfast which Mr. Hansen is holding at the Hotel Grand in honor of his organization.

The breakfast is one of some 10,000 similar affairs being held throughout the country just before the new models go on view. It was arranged in acknowledgment of the unusual cooperation displayed by Chevrolet dealer employes this past year. Their emphasis on owner satisfaction, Mr. Hansen asserted, has been an important factor, not only in the year's sales record, but in the unparalleled bank of advance orders received for 1937 models. An exceptionally large bank of such orders is on file this year, he said, as a result of the public's experience with the 1936 Chevrolet.

Immediately after the breakfast, the salesroom will be thrown open, and an open house atmosphere will prevail all day. Cars will be delivered to purchasers in the rotation in which the orders are received, Mr. Hansen said, adding that production in the 18 Chevrol t assembly plants is now going on at a rate which assures prompt delivery on all orders.
