U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By Ottilia K. Ashton

Our Hallowe'en party held Saturday evening in the recreational building will long be remembered as one of the gala events of the year. This party was sponsored by the Gray Ladies with the kind assistance of the following organizations: The door prize won by Ernest Stott was the gift of the local V. F. W. post, the doughnuts from the Daughters of Veterans, through the kindly interest of Mrs. Earl Benedick, the cider from the Business and Professional Women's club, as well as the huge pumpkins and cedar trees which they had used as decorations at their dance held the night before and which added much to the Hallowe'en atmosphere of our own party. Decorations were furnished by Mrs. Tandy, and I do not believe there was anything missing to carry out the desired "spooky" effects. Our lounging room was indeed a colorful picture. Cedar trees were placed in each corner with black cats, owls and skeletons hidden in the branches, the same arrangement being used on each side of the stage in the auditorium. Two huge pumpkins with realistic looking spiders placed on top were also placed on each side of the stage and a large black cat placed over the fireplace in the center of the stage. All the light fixtures in the lounging room were covered with a varied assortment of pumpkin and cat lanterns, casting the desired dim light about the room. Our canteen counter was appropriately decorated and proved an ideal arrangement for serving the cider and doughnuts. Large jardinieres of mums and pampas grass completed our decorations.

Cards and monopoly were enjoyed the early part of the evening, followed by a most entertaining program presented by the Business and Professional Women's club. Miss Helen Casey sang the Drunkard's song and then led her famous Hill Billie band in several numbers. Homer Grow directed the community singing, all accompaniements being played by Mrs. Grow at the piano and Wm. Ott on the violin.

One hundred and thirty men attended the party and all reported a happy and enjoyable evening. In their behalf, as well as the Gray Ladies and veterans administration, we sincerely thank all those who helped make this party possible.

The second "round" of our contract bridge tournament was held Monday afternoon with high score being held this week by Robert Bristow. Gray Ladies present were Mrs. Annette Harding, chairman, Mrs. Greta Berrie, Mrs. Margaret Hines and Mrs. Nancy Tandy. They were assisted by Mrs. George Wharton. The veterans taking part were John Carman, Fred Corner, Lee Way, Wm. Lukenbill, A. C. Weitman, John Andes, Niko Dragojevich, Pete Westman and Robert Bristow.

We were happy to receive another box of jig saw puzzles from the V. F. W. auxiliary 907, Portland.

YOUNG MARRIED PEOPLE'S CLASS ENJOYS HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT DEETS HOME

The Young Married People's class of the First Baptist church held a very delightful Hallowe'en party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deets on Mill street. The rooms of the home were cleverly decorated in the Hallowe'en motif. Games were enjoyed.

Officers elected at the business meeting included: President, Mrs. John William Robertson; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Deets, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Claude Baker. Rev. J. R. Turnbull is the class teacher.

Later refreshments were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hodgen, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staffanson, Mr. and Mrs. George Caskey, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul
