News of Douglas County

AZALEA

AZALEA, Aug. 13 — Mrs. William Jantzer and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Johns spent Friday in Grants Pass. While there Mr. Johns received medical care for a mashed foot which he received Thursday while he was at work at the Starveout Lumber Co.

Mrs. Lowell Curtis and sons, Lee and Robert, shopped in Roseburg Friday.

E. L. Johns, Raphel Sharp and George Rondeau spent Saturday afternoon in Medford on business.

Fred Baumann made a business trip to Eugene Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Curtis and sons, Lee and Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hunsaker and Frank Hunsaker enjoyed a pleasure trip to Crater lake Sunday. They also visited former residents of Azalea at Trail.

Miss Mertice Rachor of Days Creek is spending this week visiting Grace Booth at the Azalea hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bussell and family of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Raynor and family of Roseburg were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bussell's and Mrs. Raynor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Swan of upper Cow creek spent the week-end at Roseburg and Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery and daughter Joan of Fernvale visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Johns.

Raphel Sharp and Louis Oldenburg made a trip to the Benton mine Sunday.

Mrs. Alden Swan and Hattie Shilts were Myrtle Creek visitors Monday.

Mrs. Joe Lapp and children, who have been spending the past two months here, left Sunday for their home in Marshfield.

Vernon Gaedecke, who has been sick for the past week, is reported to be much better now.

Mrs. Ren Rust received word Monday that her father, Mr. Pruitt, of Eugene, had passed away suddenly.

A very pleasant birthday party was planned and carried out by Mrs. Frank Tripp last Wednesday in honor of her daughter, Iris', tenth birthday anniversary. The small guests gathered at the home of Mrs. Tripp and enjoyed the afternoon of play. At four o'clock dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drews of Anchor spent Sunday at Riddle where they visited with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Leon Clare gave a birthday party for her small son, Dick, Sunday afternoon. Approximately 12 little guests were present at Dick's second birthday anniversary. After several hours of play Mrs. Clare served lovely refreshments.

Frank Jantzer Sr. attended to business at Canyonville and Myrtle Creek Tuesday.

MELROSE

MELROSE, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barnes of Yreka, California, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sjogren, and later in the day, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Sjogren and daughters, Miss Elsa and Miss Alma, and her son, Andy, and Clifford Long went to Camas Valley to visit Mrs. Barnes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ritz Wayne.

Miss Alice Fenn left last Tuesday for her home in Murray, Iowa, after visiting several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fenn. This was Miss Fenn's first visit to Melrose.

The Elgarose Comfort club meets Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. F. Ward, with Mrs. V. S. Woodruff as joint hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cooper, who have resided at Ashland for the past year arrived at Melrose Thursday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Conn. They left Monday for Bend, Oregon, to make their home.

Mrs. Hazel Ireland and her aunt, Mrs. Edith Gabbard, and the latter's grandson, Wilford Gabbard, of Portland are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn. Mrs. Gabbard is a sister of Mrs. Dunn and she and Mrs. Ireland are both former Melrose residents.

The Woodruff clan will picnic Sunday, August 22, in the grove at John Krohn's which was the donation land claim of Heart Woodruff in 1852.

Mrs. E. R. Fenn recently returned home from a ten days' vacation trip spent at the Home Makers' camp at Croft lake, under the supervision of Miss Jessie Palmiter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stivers of San Francisco, Mrs. Nettie Hanan of Yoncalla and Mrs. Jessie Donnaugh of Portland were guests of Melrose friends the latter part of last week.

Mrs. John Busenbark, Jr., her son, Edward, and her mother, Mrs. Kate Reece returned home Friday from several days' vacationing at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Burnfield of Los Angeles left Saturday for Marshfield, after visiting the past week with relatives and friends at Melrose where the latter formerly resided.

A. M. Driver of Yerington, Nevada, made a business trip to Melrose Saturday in the interest of a tract of timber land which he owns. He is planning to make a road from the Woodruff sawmill up over the mountain to this timber tract which consists largely of cedar. Mr. Driver is planning to put in a shingle mill and truck the shingles to Yerington. He already has four men employed in building a cabin on the tract and clearing a place for the mill. Mr. Driver left Sunday for his home, but will return again Aug. 17 to start grading the road.

Ed Glass and son Bud, Edward Busenbark and Chas. Brown left Friday for Klamath Falls to seek employment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cooper visited Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper. They returned Sunday evening to their home in Coos county.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw of Roseburg were speakers at the Melrose-Elgarose Townsend meeting Friday evening at the Elgarose playshed.

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Chris Beecroft, of Roseburg, spent Sunday visiting with Mrs. Beecrofts parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bates, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Wimer and children from Eugene, who were here on their way to Grants Pass, where Mr. Wimer has been transferred for his work as brakeman on the S. P.

Mrs. Hattie Sherman, who has been ill since spring when she suffered a stroke of paralysis, was able to get out to church last Sunday. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Sherman, who had been vacationing at Reedsport, stopped for a short visit with her Sunday on their way to their home in Roseburg.

Mrs. Glenn Richardson and daughters, Glennda and Melba, moved to the coast last week to be with Mr. Richardson, who has been working there for some time past.

George Wertz, local cannery man of Grants Pass, was in town for a short while Tuesday, on his way to Eugene with a truck load of last year's pack of tomatoes for sale.

The annual hegira of moving has begun. Mrs. Saunders made the first move by vacating her cottage on 2nd street which was purchased and moved into by Dr. and Mrs. Hess; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Mickelson then moved into the Thompson house where the Hesses had been living. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Easton are moving into the Cornutt house on 2nd street this week and Mrs. May Brewer is moving to the Easton house which is owned by Mrs. Emma Buick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kusler have been working in the Kusler store while their son, Marion, is doing some outside work lately.

Mrs. Harry Stimson of North Myrtle was in town Saturday. She reports that her husband, who has been in the veterans' hospital in Roseburg since June, suffering of heart trouble, is somewhat improved.

Harry Rice and Ilo Dyer returned Monday from a week's outing at Belknap springs.

Virginia Whitney, who spent last week camping with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, at Tyee, where Mr. Hughes is working, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. R. M. Shirtcliff and Mrs. Violet Hendry were Myrtle Creek visitors Sunday from their home in Roseburg.

Mrs. J. O. VanWinkle and son, Richard, and Mrs. VanWinkle's mother, Mrs. Addie Hutchinson, who has been spending some time here, with her daughter, Mrs. Bess Cooper, left Friday for Harrisburg where Mrs. Hutchinson will visit for a while with the VanWinkle family before going on to her home in Bremerton, Wash.

Orval Baldwin has enlisted in the navy but will not be leaving for some time.

George McDonald, postmaster and merchant at Remote, brought his son, Junior, over for a visit with his grandmother, Mrs. May Brewer, last Thursday, and came after him Monday.

June Ulam of Gazley, is visiting at Lakeview, and writes that her sinus trouble is entirely cured by the change of climate and altitude.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kyle of Alpine, Ore., spent Saturday and Sunday at the W. J. B. Dieckman home. Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. Dieckman are sisters and both are nieces of Mrs. J. A. Jackson. On Sunday John Jackson was able to be carried over to the Dieckman home for a visit with the relatives in their reunion. Mr. Jackson has been very ill but is considerably improved.

Ralph Shirtcliff returned from Woodburn Monday where he had played ball Saturday with the Douglas county Juniors in their losing game.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns spent Saturday and Sunday in Drain with Mrs. Stearns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deardorff.

Mrs. Annie Wood and Mrs. Kate Southworth of Wenova, West Virginia, have been visiting with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, of Gazley, since the middle of July. Last Friday they were joined by another sister, Mrs. George Browning of Highland, Calif., who with their brother, John Hart, also of Gazley, completes the family of the Harts. A very happy family reunion is being enjoyed by the brothers and sisters, who have been widely separated by time and distance for many years.

Mrs. Chester Rule and daughter, Erma, of Highland, Calif., are visiting here with Mrs. Rule's uncles, V. C. and T. R. Dunnavin, and families and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren James and son, Verlen, and nephew, Alvin, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hickman, motored to Crater lake Tuesday, where they were to meet friends, and spend the day visiting and sight seeing.

Mrs. George Norman, accompanied by her father, Hiram Smith, were Roseburg visitors Tuesday.

Robert Norman of Coquille was a Myrtle Creek visitor Sunday evening en route to his home from Medford, where he had been employed in finishing work on a theatre building.

Wanda Skinner returned last week from a two weeks' visit with friends at Cottage Grove and Salem. While gone she attended the Oregon Trail pageant at Eugene.

Vic Wynter, who has raised a patch of perfectly "grand" prize-winning tomatoes on the Henry Adams ranch, is peddling them by truck to coast towns.

A Mr. Rathbun, who lives in Bear Pen hollow, east of town, recently found a little fawn whose mother had been killed. The baby deer was nearly dead from starvation and the kind hearted man took it and fed it until it was strong enough to get about. He then gave it to Vic Wynter. It follows Vic wherever he goes even riding in the truck with him providing entertainment for everyone

RIDDLE

RIDDLE, Aug. 13.—Miss Marjorie Wilson, who is employed with the Copco at Roseburg spent Sunday here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Augusta Wilson.

Mrs. P. W. Didtel returned Tuesday from a trip to Klamath Falls where she visited with her son, Pete Didtel, and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schlenker of Portland visited over the week-end here at the home of Mrs. Schlenker's brother, Lee Kellar, and family.

Miss Lorna Young of California is spending the summer months here visiting at the home of her grandfather, Tom Wilson, and with her friend Elain Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver Howland, who have been visiting Mr. Howland's parents, left Sunday morning to return to their home at Big Creek, Calif.

Attorney L. S. Jones was attending to business matters in Grants Pass several days last week.

David Clark, former principal of this school, but now located at Klamath Falls visited friends here for a short time Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Alkins and children motored to Klamath Falls Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Logsdon.

Ernest Pruner reports killing a three foot rattlesnake near the back door of his home last week.

Mrs. G. L. Grant was was hostess for the Ladies Aid last Thursday afternoon. Ten ladies were present. Mrs. Grant assisted by Mrs. O. V. Logsdon, joint hostess, served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. H. A. Crow, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crow, went to Salem last Sunday where they attended the annual picnic of the Gilliam clan of which Mrs. Crow is a member. The party remained over for a few days' visit and report a most enjoyable visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Phil Blundell accompanied by Mrs. Dora Willis and Mrs. Belle Mayes, drove to Yoncalla Sunday where they were guests for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells, former residents of this valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball went to Reedsport Sunday and attended the postmasters' picnic held there that day. Mrs. Lawson is postmistress at the Riddle office.

A number of friends and relatives from this place attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Weaver held at Myrtle Creek Sunday afternoon.

Miss Willametta Logsdon, who has been attending summer school at Eugene returned here Monday for a short visit with relatives before leaving Wednesday on a month's tour to Alaska. Miss Logsdon will teach in the Junction City schools this winter.

At a recent meeting of the school board, O. J. Collins was appointed painter of the school for the coming year. At present Mr. Collins is engaged in building flues in the old gym building where stoves are to be installed. Mr. Beals of Canyonville is wrecking the old school building and expects to have it removed by Sept. 1.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Ore., Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Beaver of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs of Grants Pass called at the Roy E. Robinson home Saturday.

Mrs. Jim Stewart is in the hospital at Medford seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards, Mrs. Grover McKeown, Mrs. W. T. Harbour and Mrs. C. B. Austin visited the chapter of O. E. S. in Myrtle Creek Monday evening.

Jack Vincent of Medford visited with his sister and family, Mrs. Ida Basye, Sunday.

Mrs. G. Hughes and two children, Dick and Geraldine, arrived Saturday to visit her brother Harvey Smith, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Purvine of Portland, and daughter, Miss Margaret Purvine, and Mrs. Hyatt, of Salem are the house guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Walker E. Purvine, at the Victory mine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McMullin and son, Dale, and Reule Meissner were week-end guests of Mrs. McMullin's sister, Mrs. Fred Straub, on the Applegate.

Mrs. Helen Marcks arrived from Portland Thursday to visit with her son, Wallace Marcks.

Mrs. W. D. Meissner and son, Reule, were Grants Pass visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peabody and Mrs. C. R. Dickinson of Multnomah arrived Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Howard and daughters, Margaret and Helen, and son, Alvin, Mr and Mrs. Fred Bartle, Mrs. Mildred Brown and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Dulley, Mrs. Dutell, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Paul Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Swank, and James Simpson attended the funeral of Mrs. Ella Weaver in Riddle Sunday.

Miss Alice Sether and Bob Croft arrived Sunday from Longview and are visiting with Miss Sether's father, Olger Sether and other relatives. Monday they visited at the Oregon caves, and Tuesday at Crater lake and will spend the balance of the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Branham of Klamath Falls visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Schleigh.

Mrs. Hilma Mathews left Monday for Long Beach and Los Angeles, Calif., for a visit.

Lester Nelson left Sunday for a business trip to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller and Mr. Gamey visited in Grants Pass Saturday.

C. W. Ingham returned Wednesday from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Ilma Pete arrived from Portland Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pete.

Mrs. L. G. Hansen and sister, Miss Hansen, left Saturday for Grants Pass. Miss Hansen went on to Los Angeles Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Olders left Saturday for a visit with friends in Rogue River.

Persons afflicted with aphemia can think and write, but cannot speak. Persons afflicted with agraphia can think and speak, but cannot express ideas in writing.

Apple pie is the great American dessert. Stewards on railway dining cars always carry a generous supply.

PARKINSON'S
FOOD FOR SALE

A leading policy of this store during the six years of its existence has been to back the local producer — The patronage of many has proven that this policy is appreciated.

Prices effective Saturday and Monday, Aug. 14--16

FLOUR Kitchen Queen, 49-lb. bag $1.59
GET PRICES ON OTHER BRANDS

CORN Wadham's Whole Kernel, 2 cans 25c

PEAS No. 2 tins 10c

STRING BEANS Lane County No. 2 tins 10c

Krispy CRACKERS 2-lb. box 29c

KRAUT No. 2½ tins, 2 tins 25c

Whole Grain RICE 4 lbs. 25c

Brooms 4-sew, each 35c

Wax Paper 125-ft. roll 15c

COFFEE Vacuum packed. Great American, lb. 23c

SOAP Crystal White, 10 bars 39c

White King Toilet Soap 6 bars 25c

Toilet Tissue 1000-sheet rolls, 4 for 19c

Sanitary Napkins Kotex, Pkg. 20c

We Pay 20c for Eggs. Any Color, Case Count.

323 WEST CASS FREE DELIVERY PHONE 24

Final CLEAN UP

IT'S LAST CALL

For real "honest-to-goodness" bargains ALL Shoes MUST be sold! To do it prices have been drastically cut again. At these prices they will sell fast —so come early—first come—first served.

DRESSES
Smart Summer Styles in Silk Dresses. Values to $4.95 ..... $2.99

Broken lots in sandals, novelty and oxford styles. Not all sizes in each — but most any size in some. Values are to $5 —all good styles. $1.00

Grouped here are better grade novelty and sport oxfords. Included are a number of styles in the famous Perfect-Eze shoes. All good sizes. Values are to $6.50. $2.00

HOSIERY
Buy the first pair at the regular price of $1.15 and the second pair for only 10c. (All wanted shades.) 10

BAGS
Still a limited number of smart seasonable bags in white and pastel colors. All smartly fitted. Closing out at 69c 69c

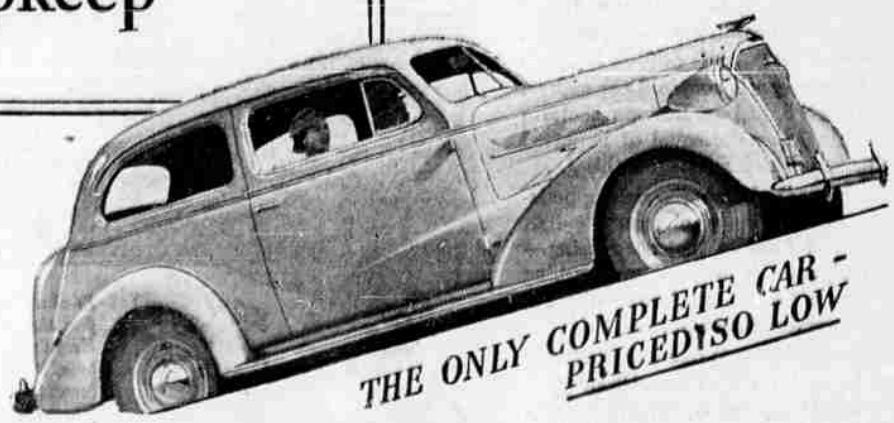
LOWELL'S

Save every way with a CHEVROLET

Save on First Cost
Save on Gas and Oil
Save on Upkeep

CHEVROLET MOTOR DIVISION, General Motors Sales Corporation, DETROIT, MICHIGAN
General Motors Installment Plan —monthly payments to suit your purse.

FOR ECONOMICAL CHEVROLET TRANSPORTATION



. . . . and enjoy better motoring too, in this smarter, more modern, more comfortable car

HANSEN MOTOR CO.

Oak and Rose Street Roseburg, Oregon