CHILDREN OF ROSEBURG INVITED TO MATINEE STORY HOUR SATURDAY

All of the children of Roseburg and Douglas county are invited to enjoy another charming matinee story hour to be conducted by Miss Elaine Brown at the Children's room at the Roseburg public library from three to four o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 12.

The Roseburg public library board has expressed its appreciation to Miss Brown for making the series of matinee story hours possible for the children of this county.

Miss Brown, who obtained her master's degree from Columbia university, where she specialized in library work and child story telling, has been most generous with her time in conducting the story hours.

The children's room at the library is very attractively arranged for the comfort of the young guests and the parents of the children are being urged to have the children at the room at three o'clock promptly as the story telling will begin at that time.

LINFIELD'S PREXY 'LIKELY' TO CHANGE

GLENDALE, Calif., March 11.—(AP)—Mattison B. Jones, chairman of the board of trustees, University of Redlands, at Redlands, Calif., said yesterday it was "more than likely" Dr. Elam J. Anderson, president of Linfield college at McMinnville, Ore., would become Redlands' new president.

Dr. Anderson conferred with a committee of Redlands trustees in Los Angeles about 10 days ago, and later visited the university, he said. He added a definite decision was expected by April 1.

Herbert E. Marsh has been acting president of Redlands since Dr. Clarence E. Thurber resigned a year ago.

Out of Place?

Presence of Miss Gene Hopkins, only co-ed in a forestry class of 438 at the University of Washington worries Dean Hugo Winkenwerder. "Part of the class time is spent in the forest," he said, "and one girl amid 100 men in the woods might be a little out of place."

TVA HEAD DECLINES TO BACK CHARGES

WASHINGTON, March 11.—(AP)—Chairman Arthur E. Morgan of the Tennessee Valley Authority declined today to meet President Roosevelt's request for factual evidence to support charges that Morgan has made against the two other members of the TVA board.

"I am of the opinion that this meeting is not, and in the nature of the case cannot be, an effective or useful fact finding occasion," Chairman Morgan told the president in a conference with the chief executive and the other two directors of TVA.

Morgan's statement came after President Roosevelt had asked him "what evidence of dishonesty or malfeasance on the part of your colleagues have you in regard to the so-called Berry marble case."

President Roosevelt told the quarrelling directors today he had been convinced reluctantly that their work was impeded and real issues of public policy obscured by personal recriminations.

4 PORTLAND THEFTS JAIL THREE YOUTHS

PORTLAND, March 11.—(AP)—Four robberies and a beatup in less than three hours resulted in the arrests of three Los Angeles youths last night.

Police, checking one robbery after another, lay in wait at a drugstore in the vicinity of other holdups and detained Wilfred W. Robearge, 19, Floyd Gilbert, 18, and Lloyd Gano, 22, on assault and robbery charges. They confiscated five guns, extra ammunition and about $100. A drugstore proprietor was beaten on the head with a revolver, Detective Irwin Abbot said.

PORTLAND, March 10.—(AP)—Four young men were jailed on charges of destruction of public property today because they vented their hate for the new parking meters. They wrecked the timing mechanism and smashed the glass in 50 curbstone machines.

A nervous, indecisive man, whose war tactics against the Americans during the Revolutionary war, are still a mystery, Sir William Howe officially reported that he couldn't beat the rebels when his army was 4 times as strong as Washington's and the British navy was on hand.
