NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON FORECLOSURE EXECUTION

Notice is hereby given that by virtue and authority of a foreclosure execution order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County, dated the 28th day of September, 1927, to me directed and delivered upon a judgment, decree and order of sale made and entered in said court on the 17th day of August, 1927, in favor of Annie Honan, plaintiff, versus Andrew Van Blokland and Mary A. Van Blokland, his wife, Garret Van Blokland and Emma L. Van Blokland, his wife, A. T. Hill, trustee of Andrew Van Blokland, a bankrupt, A. H. Lea, J. E. Reynolds and Edna E. Reynolds, and Marie Maasdam, Defendants, wherein judgment was duly rendered in favor of the said plaintiff and against the defendants, Andrew Van Blokland and Mary A. Van Blokland, his wife, for the sum of $13,000.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum, from the 11th day of March, 1923, until paid for the further sum of $1,000.00 as a reasonable attorney's fees, together with costs and disbursements herein, taxed at $30.40 (less the sum of $1890.90 paid thereon on September 28, 1927), and a decree of foreclosure against each and all of the said defendants, in which said execution and order of sale I am commanded to make a sale of the following described real property, the same being the real property described in the mortgage foreclosed in said suit, to-wit:

The S½ of the NW¼, the W½ of the NE¼, the N½ of the SW¼, and the NW¼ of the SE¼ of Sec. 14, Twp. 2, south Range 38, E. W. M., in Union County, Oregon.

Now, therefore, by virtue and authority of said writ, and in obedience to its commands, I will, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1927, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the court house in La Grande, Union County, Oregon, sell at public auction the above described real property, and all of the right, title, interest and equity of the said defendants, or either of them, in and to the same or any part thereof, on the date of the mortgage foreclosed in said suit, or that they have since acquired in and to said described real property, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, subject to redemption as provided by law, the proceeds of said sale to be applied in satisfaction of said judgement and decree aforesaid.

Dated this 3rd day of October, 1927.

JESSE BRESHEARS,
Sheriff of Union County, Oregon.
Oct. 3-10-17-24-31

"So yuh teased the tenderfoot, huh?" asked Cactus Pete.

"Yeah" replied Yuma Joe. "Jest kidded him a little. Drew a circle around his heart with five bullets an' made him think I was gonna put the sixth one inside the circle."

"How did you find things down on the farm this summer? Crops are good, I hope."

"Well, father did fairly well on his barbecue but he just about broke even on his gasoline and oil."

AT THE THEATERS

"Heart of Maryland" at Colonial Today

The attraction at the Colonial theater today and Tuesday is Dolores Costello in Warner Bros. screen revival of Belasco's thrilling melodrama, "The Heart of Maryland." Unusually beautiful settings and superb photography, a strong story and a large and competent cast all tend to make the picture a masterpiece. Lincoln, Lee, Grant, and other celebrities of the period are impersonated with amazing faithfulness and the tense and electric atmosphere of the times is captured to the degree of uncanniness. But after all it is the delicate and shimmering loveliness of Miss Costello, with her subtle interpretations of all shades of feeling, which make the piece so glamorous and so poignant. No one can afford to miss seeing Dolores Costello in "The Heart of Maryland."

Gorgeous Star Scores in Film at Star

"American Beauty" is all that the name implies.

Which means that the picture of that name showing tonight for the last time at the Star theater has beautiful Billie Dove, who richly deserves the title, in the starring role, a capable cast of supporting players and an excellent story in which an abundance of comedy and touches of drama and pathos are intermingled with skill and adroitness.

Adapted from a short story of the same name by Wallace Irwin, "American Beauty" is the whimsical story of a beautiful girl who has no money but conceals the fact behind a screen of pretense in order to catch a millionaire for a husband. When she finally has the millionaire in her net, of course, she discovers he isn't such a catch after all.

Lloyd Hughes lends his pleasant personality and masculine handsomeness to the leading role opposite Miss Dove. Walter McGrail, as the millionaire, gives a finished performance and Lucien Prival, a comparative newcomer to the screen, stands out in a comedy role of unusual nature. Margaret Livingston, Al St. John, Edythe Chapman, Alice White, Yola d'Avril Loretta Young and others are in support.

A cartoon comedy and the latest Paramount News make up the balance of a most enjoyable program.

Freedom?

A one-man movement to free Georges Quien, serving a 20-year sentence at Clairvaux, France, for the betrayal of the nurse, Edith Cavell, to the Germans, has been started by M. Roc, Qien's jailer. Quien recently was a cellmate of Bennett J. Doty, American boy who was freed after serving a sentence for infractions of Foreign Legion rules, and Doty described him as a "most miserable wretch." Quien is pictured above. Below is a scene at his trial.

"Cheating Cheaters" at Arcade

There is nothing more entertaining than a well-peformed, mystifying, farce-comedy, and there is no better example of this rare dish than "Cheating Cheaters," the latest Universal-Jewel production, which is showing at the Arcade theater today and Tuesday.

Like all good pictures of this type the star must become involved in some embarrassing or difficult situation and by the aid of assistants becomes more deeply involved in the affair. Well, that's just what happens to Betty Compson, the bewitchin little blonde, who gets herself into a peck of trouble and out again in "Cheating Cheaters."

The whole production is lavishly filled with unusual and embarrassing situations, and the superb "gags" are feathers in the directorial cap of Edward Laemmle, who gets credit for the picture. There are no big mob scenes, great lapses of time or spectacular settings for comedy. Instead, there are nine supposedly super-intelligent New York crooks who become immersed in a social quagmire leading up to a laugh-provoking jewel robbery.

Betty Compson plays the stellar role of her colorful career in this screaming crook production opposite Kenneth Harlan, and the pair is surrounded by capable supporting players. Eddie Gribbon, who is well known for his comedy-burglar roles, contributes many humorous interludes.

The added attraction at the Arcade theater today and Tuesday is "Fantasy," a Paramount Novelty, produced by Charles R. Mintz. The theme is out of the ordinary and its origin is from a story by Frank Stockton, called, "Old Applejoy's Ghost." A girl who comes to live with a cranky old uncle, loses her vivacity and joy for living by constant association with the old grouch. Until the ghost appears the poor little miss is very unhappy. The boy who visits them on Christmas is not welcomed by the old man. The ghost persuades him to inaugurate a Christmas Ball. The ghost finally prevails and the old man sees the error of his ways: the boy and girl are reunited.

Consider the moth. He can do quietly and easily to last year's overcoat what a sweating 214-pound football player sometimes just can't do to the enemy line.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
