W. W. G. GIRLS RETURN FROM CAMP

The World Wide Guild Girls arrived home from the Guild camp at Cascadia, July 24. The girls had a lovely time hiking to Rainbow falls, Soda falls and other picturesque spots. The mornings were spent in classes, afternoons in recreation and evenings around the campfire singing Guild songs.

Those attending camp from Roseburg were Mary Alice Wolford, Dorothy Nelson, Virginia Klaenhammer, Phyllis Morian and Genevieve Moore from Glide.

POET'S CORNER

PEACE

Peace, most precious thing on earth,
Oh how we love thy reign,
And may our nation prize thy worth,
In war there is no gain.

Oh how we all should strive for thee
Though we must compromise,
Then would we all less selfish be
And cling to thee, thou prize.
