Today's Pattern

FROCK FOR SCHOOL GIRLS OFFERS MANY CHANGES

By CAROL DAY

The choice thing about this blouse-jumper-bolero, shown in Pattern No. 8388, is that you can build almost a whole wardrobe for your school girl daughter around it.

With different blouses, the jumper skirt will seem like several dresses, and even more changes are made possible by donning or removing the bolero. Bolero added, it's a smart little suit. This high-waisted version of the jumper skirt is becoming to growing girls. The blouse is simple and young, with round collar and puffed sleeves.

For the bolero and jumper, choose wool crepe, flannel, challis and, later on, cottons like plaid and linen. For the blouse, choose linen, batiste, dimity or lawn.

Pattern No. 8388 is designed for sizes 10, 12, 14 and 16 years. Size 12 requires 1 3/8 yards of 39-inch material for long-sleeved bolero, 1 1/8 yards for short-sleeved; 2 1/8 yards for the skirt; 1 1/4 yards of 35-inch material for blouse.

The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents.

ALPHA BETA DELPHIAN CHAPTER TO HOLD PRELIMINARY MEETING

The preliminary meeting of Alpha Beta chapter of the national Delphian society will be held Monday, May 15th, at ten o'clock at the Hotel Umpqua. Mrs. Lena Latham Goble, of Los Angeles, Pacific coast director of the National Delphian society, will be present to give the chapter formal recognition and will give an inspirational talk on "Basic Trends for Modern Times."

A three-year course will be taken up, the first year's study to be on "the economic, social and political and international affairs." The second year will be "modern literature," and the third year will be "modern art."

The Delphian society is the largest adult educational class for women in the United States and is a study club, which makes a special effort to take the "long view" of historical backgrounds and of international affairs.

Mrs. S. Raynor Smith will be supervisor of the new chapter. There will be a period for general discussion and talks by members will be limited to three minutes. Election of officers will take place and other matters of importance will be discussed.

A luncheon will be held at 12 o'clock. Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling the Umpqua hotel. Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. J. C. McCallister and Mrs. Washington Hughes.

Members of the former Delphian chapter organized a number of years ago here, are cordially invited to both the meeting and luncheon. Members of the new chapter, Alpha Beta, are requested to bring the first year's outline on "Basic Trends," as topics will be assigned to those who wish to take an active part in the study.

Members are privileged to bring guests to the meeting and luncheon. Mrs. Minnie St. Clair Brine will send invitations to members of the new chapter. All full attendance is requested as matters of importance regarding future regular meetings will be taken up.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY POPPY SALE TO BE MAY 26TH-27TH

Preparations for the observance of Poppy days, Friday and Saturday, May 26-27, are being completed by Umpqua Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Victor Micelli, Unit president, announced today. Arrangements are being directed by Mrs. Lee Williams, chairman of the Poppy Day committee, assisted by a large corps of workers from the Unit. While the majority of the workers will be members of the American Legion Auxiliary, both adult members and juniors, women from other organizations are volunteering for poppy work. Many volunteers are coming from the girls' and young women's groups of the city.

"Honor the World War dead and aid the war's living victims, is the meaning of the memorial poppy," said Mrs. Micelli. "The poppy, which bloomed so strikingly among the trenches and battle graves in France and Belgium, became the flower of the dead during the war. Ever since the war it has been worn in all English speaking countries annually as an individual tribute to the men who gave their lives in the conflict. "The little red flower takes added significance from the fact that it is made by the war disabled, and that it contributes to the welfare of the disabled men and the dependent families of veterans. Everyone who wears a poppy on Poppy day, not only is showing remembrance and honor for the men who died in the war, but is giving help to those who still are bearing the burdens of the war in suffering, privation and lost opportunities. All contributions made for the flower will go to support the rehabilitation and welfare work of the Legion and Auxiliary, which means so much to the disabled veterans and the families of the dead and disabled.

"The women of Umpqua Unit are making great efforts for a successful Poppy day this year and are hoping that everyone in Roseburg will catch the spirit of the day and will join with them in honoring the dead and aiding the disabled."
