A FARM WITH A COAL MINE, WITHIN two miles of the West Side Railroad, up among the hills of the Yamhills, is a place where thousands of dollars have been expended in prospecting for coal and not altogether fruitless. The indications were more encouraging as the work proceeded. Inclines shafts were run and thousands of tons of croppings were thrown on the dump. Perpendicular shafts were sunk and as a result water arose to the surface; the mine was flooded; the funds for development were exhausted; the lease has recently expired and the whole thing—mine and farm—is for sale. Competent coal experts pronounce this unquestioned coal land and only awaits development to prove it such.
The whole mountain of dump after lying for a year, was fired by spontaneous combustion. It burned like a limekiln. The debris of clay and earthy matter charred as cinders from vitrified brick, is now being used for road pavement. The farm of 177 acres is only 27 miles of Portland, on main county road, rural route and telephone line. In the making of a beautiful farm, over 50 acres of very rich level bottom land is now in cultivation and crop. Farm is fenced into nine fields with running water in each during dryest season. The uncultivated portion is sloping hill land with timber more valuable than price asked for the land and best of soil when cleared. There is a house, two barns, orchard, 5 cows, several young heifers, sheep, hogs, chickens, tools and implements. We can sell this if taken at once, for less than the farm is worth.

THE LACEY WAY
Is recognized to be the standard way of handling timber lands. The timber must first satisfy us, and our cruise reveals every detail of the conditions surrounding it. Our reports are prepared in such a way that the buyer knows whether or not the timber will satisfy him before he visits the tract.
Twenty years' experience, and the clientage we represent, is a sufficient guarantee that our methods are right. You may waste your valuable time in looking up the tract you want. Take advantage of the results of our own constant efforts along this line and get the best.
