A CITY MAN'S FARM.

Would you like to have a beautiful, low, rolling, green alfalfa foothill farm with a few trees, a stream, a fine view of the valley and snow-capped mountains, on a fine automobile road, near Portland, soon to have an electric carline, for $50 per acre?

It will produce 6 tons of alfalfa per acre. Net profit on 100 acres $5000. One seeding for life. No care.

It takes deep, rich soil; drainage and a proper subsoil.

If this statement is correct this land is worth $250 and will soon sell for $500 per acre. Come and see the alfalfa.

We have sold to six Agricultural College professors and soil experts. Learn what they say. 10,000 acres at a bargain.
