Legion Inquires Into Move Against Bonham

SEATTLE, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The federal bureau of investigation and the Dies committee were asked last night by Seattle post No. 1 of the American Legion to investigate motives of the Washington Commonwealth federation in seeking dismissal of Immigration Inspector R. P. Bonham.

Removal of Bonham, who played a prominent part in the recent deportation hearing of Harry Bridges, west coast CIO leader, was urged in a resolution adopted at the WCF convention over the week-end. The Legion said it interpreted the attack on Bonham "as nothing more nor less than a communist-inspired attempt to break down the immigration laws and to instill fear in the minds of men who enforce them."
