DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

The hope of the world lies with its high-minded consecrated youth, consecrated not to the quitter's bad habit of just getting by, but to the heroic code of risking one's life for Christ and for man. There is fear in the world today, and greed, and despair. But youth must never make peace with any of these. Bring to the world's ills the cure of joy, and hope, and cheer, and high purpose and stern courage. This does not mean that we must avoid facing realities. It means that we must learn to face them unafraid, and with the unconquerable optimism which Jesus expressed, "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." How many times we are defeated through fear. Yet did He not say, "whatsoever things ye desire, when you pray, believe that ye have them and they are yours." "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and we shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." This is the hope of the world, with its high-minded consecrated youth. Amen.

CCC Enrollee Seriously Burned by Gasoline Fire

BEND, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Gasoline unloaded from a truck at the Redmond CCC camp yesterday ignited and seriously injured William Hayes, Wisconsin enrollee. Physicians at a Bend hospital said 70 per cent of his body was burned but that he had a fair chance for recovery. A cigarette was blamed for the fire.
