Every state, county and city official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar is spent. This is a fundamental principle of democratic government.

THE neatest trick of this political season, (though in fact the stunt cannot be classified as political at all) was the successful effort of Oregon's self-admitted number one anti-Semitic to get five pages of his writings carried to the voters of the first district by the official Voters' Pamphlet, published by the state of Oregon.

The procedure was absurdly simple. All the young man had to do was file as a candidate in the primary election, order his statement printed in the pamphlet—and there it is. Certainly the young man, not known in public life had no thought of winning votes, but was fired with the zeal to blast away at a kind of people he hates—and he did, and the state handled the transaction for a fee.

Incidentally, the photograph on page 16 of the pamphlet tells a far more eloquent story than the words printed therein. The shirt, the tie and the mustache are eloquent.

This brings up a question—what is the Voters' Pamphlet, and what is its purpose? That question is a stopper, especially as applied to the pamphlet issued prior to the primary election. Ostensibly it is a printed catalog of the candidates. Actually it is no such thing. Take this election for instance, on the ballot the names of 42 candidates appear. Only 21 of these candidates are mentioned in the pamphlet. Since space in the pamphlet costs money, it may be assumed that the other half of the list of candidates did not feel able to make the expenditure—or did not think the advertising space was worth the money.

The unfortunate part of this pamphlet business is that a vast number of the voters who receive the publication are not aware of the fact that only those who paid money have their names included in it, but the impression is that this little publication is a complete listing of the candidates—which it most positively is not.

Now that it has been discovered by the one bright young man above mentioned that our little state advertising publication may be used as a means of distributing literature concerning any cause having an advocate with money, it seems to this writer that the next session of the legislature should take a good look at the law that authorizes the pamphlet and make some rather drastic and important revisions in it. At least the pamphlet, if it is continued, should include the names of all candidates.

of Swedish gold consigned to New York for safe keeping. Knowing the value of gold to the nazis, you can imagine the nervousness of the American captain.

ALL the horrors aren't in the war zone. What happened at Natchez (Mississippi), for example.

Three hundred pleasure-loving negroes, members of the Money-wasters social club (negroes are natural-born "J'ners"), met in a hall decorated with powdery Spanish moss for a dance. The hall is roofed and sided with corrugated iron and the windows are nailed up to keep out "gate-crashers."

Fire breaks out, practically exploding through the dry moss, and what happens is almost too harrowing to read.

HERE was one place where government interference with private enterprise (compelling exits to be kept open, forbidding inflammable decorations, etc.), would have been unbelievably beneficial.

More government interference in the RIGHT PLACE and less in the WRONG places are among our crying needs.

Roseburg Trapshooters Lack One of Perfect Score

The Roseburg Rod and Gun club trapshooters finished in the top division of the state telegraphic shoot by posting a score of 74 in the final round Sunday. Culver and Smith both turned in perfect scores of 25 each and Patchett scored 24 to give the club a total of 74, one point below possible. Nine teams of the state had perfect scores of 75 points.

The institution of daylight saving time starting Sunday, April 28, results in several program changes over the Mutual Don Lee network. Important among these changes during the week is that of the morning dramatic serial, "Carters of Elm Street," which will be heard each morning at 8:45. The afternoon show, "Johnson Family," will be broadcast at 1:30 with the Quiet Hour moving to 1:45 p. m. The commentator, Fulton Lewis, Jr., changes from 4 to 3 p. m. and the Haven of Rest to 3:30 p. m. Another result of the new schedule is the reinstatement of the popular "Keep Fit to Music" program, which will now be heard over KRNR at 9:45 a. m. The Sunday program is affected with changes in the Show of the Week, which moves to 2:30 p. m.; American Forum of the Air to 4, and the Old Fashioned Revival from 5 to 6 p. m.

Increase Ordered For Company D

Local Unit of National Guard to Have Total Roster of Four Officers, 80 Enlisted Men.

New tables of organization and authorization for a small increase in strength of Company D, O. N. G., of Roseburg, have just been received by Captain Robert L. Irving, commanding officer. The new strength will be four officers and 80 enlisted men. Since September 23, 1939, the strength of the local unit has been three officers and 78 enlisted men and prior to that date the enlisted strength was only 60 enlisted men. The additional officer is required to command an additional platoon authorized under the new tables of organization which become effective May 1, 1940. After that date the local unit will be a heavy weapons company and will have one platoon of .30 calibre machine guns, one platoon of .50 calibre machine guns, and one platoon of 81mm mortars. At present the unit has two platoons of .30 calibre machine guns.

Functions Explained

The .30 calibre machine gun platoon has a similar function as in the older organization—employment against hostile personnel and support of friendly troops armed with rifles. The .50 calibre machine gun platoon has a mission of defense against tanks and armored vehicles. The guns fir can armor-piercing bullet and the platoon gives the forward elements of the battalion protection against tanks. The 81mm platoon is equipped with two mortars which deliver high angle fire and supports the battalion by firing on defiladed areas which cannot be reached by flat trajectory weapons such as the rifle and machine gun. Just recently Company D received a trench mortar and hand cart but has not yet received the .50 calibre machine guns. It is expected that the additional equipment will be received as soon as the new weapons are available from the state arsenal at Clackamas. An interesting feature of the new organization is the elimination of any reference to horse drawn transportation and the inclusion of a number of chauffeurs and a motor mechanic in the personnel.

Two Lieutenancies Open

While the local unit has been able to maintain the enlisted strength for the last three years, there has been a vacancy in the officer personnel since last September and the addition of another officer will make vacancies of two lieutenants on May 1. The requirements for officer appointments are high and only qualified candidates are considered. Candidates must be between the ages of 21 and 32 years of age, of good character and able to pass a rigid physical examination. Prior military training is a requisite and may be in national guard, ROTC, or other equal service. A high school education is required and college training will be of benefit. In addition the candidate should have completed the 10 series of army extension courses. Persons interested in appointment to the existing vacancies who can meet the requirements should contact Captain Irving for further details. Captain Irving is anxious to fill these vacancies at an early date so that the new organization can be completed and the maximum progress in training made before departure for the annual field training camp.

Dates for field training this year have been set for August 4 to 24 inclusive at Fort Lewis, Wash. The 41st division, which includes national guard troops from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, will maneuver as a unit and there are indications that additional troops will also be present, making this one of the largest concentrations of troops in the northwest for many years.

Full-Time Jobe Offered Young Women by NYA

Twelve full-time assignments are available for young women of Southern Oregon, age 18 to 21 inclusive, desiring to earn their living while training, at the Grants Pass NYA resident project, it was announced by Earl I. Rice, NYA district supervisor.

Assignments extend to June 30, 1940. At this time selection will be made for six-month assignments to the Grants Pass center or other resident projects in the state. Work experience varies on respective resident projects, but the related training, cooperative living and leisure time activities are similar on all projects. Unusually well qualified women supervise the resident centers.

Socializing experience derived from this training contributes to the vocational and personality development of young women in Oregon and other states, who find higher formal schooling beyond their means.

Rice will be available for interviews from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., Wednesday, May 1, at the Oregon state employment office, court house, Roseburg. All applications by mail or otherwise, for this period should be on file at the NYA district office at Medford by May 7th at the latest.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

"The Lord is my shepherd." Let us note the setting of this beautiful Psalm. The shepherd on the Judaean hillside senses danger in the inky desert darkness. The howling of wolves confirms his fears. The ravines, near by add only to his terror. Suddenly there flashes into his mind a thought of safety and comfort. It is this: Just as he is the shepherd to watch, and guard and feed his dependent timid flocks, so, likewise he looks up to God as the Great Shepherd of human souls. It is He who provides us with the green pastures, still waters and the full cup of plenty. This thought of the care of God is a source of strength to every Christian. We know that God always does the right, therefore Jesus could say, "Not my will, but thine be done." If Paul, in great need, tells the Corinthian church, "My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness." May our prayer for today be, make me strong enough today, to live nobly. May I be eager and willing to serve Thee and my fellowman. Grant me courage and strength to see and meet the need of the world as Jesus saw it. May I not weary in well-doing. This I ask for Jesus sake. Amen.

Oaks Top League By One-Half Game

By the Associated Press

Completion of the first month of play in the Pacific Coast Baseball league today revealed that Oakland and San Diego have had the scrap for the league leadership mostly to themselves. Oakland is one-half game ahead of San Diego, and five full games above the cellar clubs, Portland and San Francisco.

The circuit's one-two teams split a twin bill yesterday to wind up a series of seven games. San Diego won the seven-inning nightcap 4-3 for the odd game after Oakland had taken the opener 2 to 1.

While the top teams were fighting it out, the last place San Francisco Seals came through with a double victory over the Seattle Rainiers. The Seals won the first game 4 to 2 and shut out the Rainiers 6 to 0 in the nightcap.

In the other northwest game Portland bounced back from a 16-to-2 first game defeat to put down Los Angeles 4 to 3 in a nine-inning nightcap.

The final game, originally scheduled for seven innings but which went nine, was finally broken up when Reich, Portland centerfielder, smashed out a home run to unknot the 3 to 3 tie.

In the fourth circuit contest Sunday Sacramento and Hollywood divided a doubleheader, Sacramento winning the first 5 to 4 and Hollywood the nightcap, 16 to 12.

Lee Fallin Makes Debut as Portland Relief Hurler

Lee Fallin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fallin, former well-known residents of Canyonville and vicinity, and now a member of the Portland baseball club of the Pacific Coast league, made an auspicious pitching debut Sunday in the first game of the double-header. Fallin went into the game as a relief hurler and stopped cold the hard-hitting Los Angeles team, which had previously scored 16 runs on 14 hits, including three home runs and a triple, off the offers of Masters, Thomas and Pickerel, veteran Portland hurlers.

Young Fallin, a rookie flinger who pitched for Valsetz last season, held the Angels scoreless and allowed but two bingles, one of them an infield single, in the four innings that he worked. His creditable showing will probably earn him a starting assignment against Seattle in Portland this week.

Here From Umpqua—Harold G. Powell, of Umpqua, was in town Saturday attending to business.

Going to Northwest Tournament

Pictured above is the bowling team sponsored by the Pacific Greyhound lines, which will represent Roseburg in the Northwest bowling tournament now in progress at Tacoma. Members of the team are: front row—Frank Rengstorff, Ed Stillwell; back row—Floyd Sayres, Deb Day, captain, and Roy Pruitt. The team will leave Roseburg Wednesday morning and will roll a match Wednesday night at Portland with the Marlin razor blades team, winners of the state championship at the state tournament held recently in Eugene. The keglers will bowl at Tacoma Thursday night in the five-man event and will roll doubles and singles Friday.

Brooklyn Runs Win Streak to Eight

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

A baseball whirlwind that was stirred up in Brooklyn and has swept ruthlessly through the east will strike toward the western clubs of the National league today—and whether it is just a zephyr or an honest-to-goodness cyclone should be known in short order.

The Dodgers have won eight straight games for the best winning streak at the start of the season any major league club has had since 1918, when the New York Giants won their first nine.

They subdued the New York Giants 5-3 yesterday with a two-run homer by Camilli in the ninth inning turning the trick. Wyatt was given spectacular support afield.

Young Gene Thompson chuckled a five-hitter at the Pittsburgh Pirates and Lombardi hit a homer and three singles for a perfect day at bat as the Cincinnati Reds triumphed 8-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals tripped the Chicago Cubs 7-5 and the Boston Bees broke into the win column the Bees broke into the win column the Phillies on a smart seven-hit pitching performance by Lefty Joe Sullivan.

The pace-making Cleveland Indians of the American league withstood a challenge by the Detroit Tigers and won 11-9 in the tenth inning on Trosky's two-run circuit clout.

There were two other overtime games in the American league Sunday, the Boston Red Sox being forced 12 innings to nose out the Philadelphia Athletics 5-4. A home run by Tabor was the eventual payoff.

The Washington Senators handed the New York Yankees their third straight defeat 3-2 when Walker singled Case home in the tenth.

The St. Louis Browns piled up 17 hits, including a three-run homer by Judnich, in beating the Chicago White Sox 11-8.

Bill Davis Wins First in Bowling Sweepstakes

Bill Davis was first place winner in the Commercial bowling league sweepstakes on the Roseburg alleys, it was announced today. Davis bowled 548 for first place and was closely pressed by Gardner and Fullerton, each with 546 for second and third places; Cecil Black with 521 and Schaeser with 516 to complete the money positions. Other scores were Campbell 511, Roser 507, Spencer 507, Sherman 502, Stephenson 491, J. Loomis 487, Carr 486, Patchett 484, Fisher 482, Chapman 475, Krell 440, Leirbach 422.

Announcement is made by Roseburg Alleys management that a duckpin league is being formed, each team to be made up of three men and two ladies. Play will start May 8. The mangement requests that persons desiring to bowl in the duckpin league register at the alleys as soon as possible.

Lions Club Will Sponsor City Softball League

The Roseburg Lions club will assume sponsorship of the annual city softball league, it was announced today by "Bud" Ellison, chairman of the club's baseball committee. The club is installing lights on the new baseball diamond at Finlay field, and plans to present games four nights each week.

The league will be composed of eight teams—six from Roseburg and one each from Oakland and Sutherlin, Ellison reports. However, all games will be played at Roseburg this year. Two games will be presented each night, according to present plans.

A meeting of team sponsors and managers will be held within the next few days to adopt rules and schedules. It is planned to start league play about June 1.

R.H.S. Tennis Team Hands Eugene High First Loss

The Roseburg high school tennis team defeated Eugene high on the Roseburg courts in their match here Thursday 5 to 2. It was the Eugene team's first defeat for the season.
