NOTICE.

Whereas in chapter 127, general laws of Oregon, enacted in 1919, it is declared to be the duty of every person, firm, copartnership, company and corporation owning, leasing, occupying, possessing or having charge of or dominion over any land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier or dock which is infested with ground squirrels and other noxious rodents or predatory animals, or as soon as the presence of the same shall come to his, their or its knowledge, at once to proceed and to continue in good faith to exterminate and destroy such rodents by poisoning, trapping or other appropriate and effective means; and

Whereas gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) are noxious rodents in Lane county, Oregon.

Now, therefore, all of such persons, firms, copartnerships, corporations and companies owning or having dominion over land in said Lane county, Oregon, are hereby required to take steps to exterminate said gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) within 30 days from the date of the first publication of this notice. If such steps are not taken, a person or persons appointed by the county court of said Lane county will enter upon said lands and proceed to exterminate said gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) and the cost of said extermination will be levied against said lands.

The county agricultural agent hereby designates Monday, April 10, as a day to be known as "squirrel poisoning day" throughout the said Lane county, and it is hereby recommended that poisoned barley as prepared by the undersigned and representatives of the bureau of biological survey of the United States department of agriculture, be used for the purpose of such extermination. Such poisoned barley may be secured from the undersigned at his office in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, at approximately the cost of preparation.

Date of first publication of this notice, March 16, 1933. m17-31c

County Agricultural Agent.

SUMMONS IN FORECLOSURE OF DELINQUENT TAX CERTIFICATE.
Case No. 22288.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Lane county,

J. E. Redford, plaintiff, vs. Ruth Young and John Doe Young, first and full name unknown, her husband, defendants.

To: Ruth Young and John Doe Young, first and full name unknown, her husband, the above named defendants.

In the name of the state of Oregon: You are hereby notified that J. E. Redford, the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 8204 issued on the 27th day of August, 1928, by the tax collector of the county of Lane, state of Oregon, for the amount of $8.00, the same being the amount then due and delinquent for taxes for the year 1925, together with penalty, interest and costs thereon upon the real property assessed to you, of which you are the owner as appears of record, situated in said county and state, and particularly counted and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the northwest corner of John Harm's Donation Land Claim No. 45 in township 20 south range 2 west of the Willamette meridian in Lane county, Oregon, and run thence east 31.00 chains, thence south 39° west 16.20 chains, thence south 84° west 1 chains, thence south 85 links, thence north 70° 15' west 18.66 chains to west line of said donation land claim, thence north 12.93 chains to the place of beginning, all in Lane county, state of Oregon, being designated as Des. 1, page 1458, Vol. 4 (40.50 acres) on Lane county assessment and tax roll.

You are further notified that said J. E. Redford has paid taxes on said premises for prior or subsequent years, with the rate of interest on said amounts as follows:
