OLD-FASHIONED ARTS TEA IS CHARMING BENEFIT AFFAIR

One of the most successful benefit affairs of the year was sponsored by the Roseburg W. C. T. U. in the form of an old-fashioned arts tea Wednesday from two to five-thirty o'clock at the Methodist church. Over two-hundred called to see the beautiful exhibits and enjoy the demonstrations of wool carding, spinning, weaving and needlepoint work.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with gorgeous bouquets of colorful spring flowers, a large number being arranged through the courtesy of the Moyers Nurseries at Dillard. The ladies assisting with the affair wore charming models of old-fashioned gowns.

Practically every type of the old-fashioned arts were on display and included: furniture, China, rugs, quilts, bedspreads, clothing, family heirlooms and valuable antiques too numerous to mention. One of the most attractive displays was the button collection belonging to Mrs. J. D. Osborn, which includes many thousands of buttons, of which no two are alike. The buttons were especially attractive, being displayed on gold and silver cards.

Mrs. Annie L. Russell, president of the W. C. T. U., received the guests and Mrs. Victor J. Micelli and Mrs. J. D. Osborn acted as joint general chairmen of the affair with Mrs. C. H. Wickham in charge of the program, which included: piano numbers by Mrs. Clyde Beard; vocal solo, "Old Spinning Wheel," by Mrs. Hugh Whipple, accompanied by Mrs. Beard; whistling solo by Mrs. Homer Grow; violin solos by Mrs. Morris H. Roach, and vocal solos by Miss Betty Marsters with Mrs. Grow accompanying the latter two guest artists.

Assisting Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Osborn and Mr. Micelli were Mr. L. F. Wilson, Miss Edith Staggs, Mrs. George Leeper, Mrs. C. A. Edwards, Mrs. Clyde Cavander, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Lucia Rice, Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. Fred Fisher and Mrs. C. H. Wickham.

The tea table was covered by a beautiful lace cloth and centered with a bowl of pink dogwood blossoms flanked by tall pink tapers. Alternating in presiding at the table during the tea hours were Mrs. C. W. Groves and Mrs. Melville T. Wire; Mrs. D. H. Morgan and Mrs. R. I. Gile, and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters and Mrs. Hugh Harrison.

The affair was sponsored by the W. C. T. U. for the purpose of raising funds for the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis and to assist the state W. C. T. U. in carrying on its worthwhile projects of the year.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Roseburg Woman's club will hold a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon meeting next Tuesday at the clubhouse with Miss Marie Martens, program chairman, assisted by Mrs. L. A. Wells and Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn, hostesses.

Annual election of officers will be held and the club will elect delegates to attend the state convention to be held in Corvallis. Mrs. W. R. Brown, president, will be in charge of the meeting and Mrs. Jack Suksdorf will be in charge of the special music.

Preceding the meeting the executive luncheon of the officers will be held at 12 o'clock at the Hotel Rose.

WIMBERLY-WHARTON BRIDGE-LUNCHEONS ARE CHARMING AFFAIRS

Two of the most charming parties of the season were given this week by Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. J. R. Wharton at the beautiful home of the former on Glenn street, when they entertained friends at a bridge-luncheon at one o'clock Monday and again on Tuesday. The two parties were the first of a series of affairs to be given by Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Wharton.

Deep blue wild delphinium, arranged with pink rosebuds, pink tulips and sprays of the pink beauty bush shrub, were artistically arranged about the rooms. In the dining room, a beautiful lace cloth was used to cover the tables, which was centered by a long mirror plaque, holding tiny figurerines, and at the back of the mirror were five round blue bowls filled with the wild blue-colored delphinium. The gorgeous garden and out-door living room at the back of the dining and living rooms is especially colorful at this time of the year and was greatly admired by the guests. Dainty bouquets of Cecil Brunner roses graced the luncheon tables.

On Monday Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Wharton were assisted in serving and in receiving by Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. E. L. Knapp and Mrs. Roy Catching. Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with score prizes going to Mrs. R. D. Coen, Miss Margaret Baum and Mrs. W. F. Harris.

Assisting the hostesses in receiving and serving at the Tuesday bridge-luncheon were: Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. Guy Cordon and Mrs. G. C. Finlay. Score prizes for the afternoon's bridge play were awarded to Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Harry S. Black and Mrs. H. C. Wells.

N. OF W. THIMBLE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON MONDAY

The Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club enjoyed a delicious one-thirty o'clock potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Clifton Hooper on Harvard avenue. Covers were placed for five guests and thirteen members.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. O. McCaun, after which visiting and sewing were enjoyed. Those present were: Mrs. Thurman Smith, Mrs. Percy Meyers, Mrs. Anna Dowell, Mrs. Carl Moome and Mrs. C. V. Johnson, guests, and the following members: Mrs. J. O. McCuan, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Adrian Hulbert, Mrs. P. E. Beaver, Mrs. R. L. Hounshell, Mrs. C. W. Dishman, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. Harry Lohr, Mrs. Hattie Taylor, Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Mrs. Liston Darby, Mrs. W. E. Moran and the hostess, Mrs. Clifton Hooper.

The next one-thirty o'clock potluck luncheon will be May 12th at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hounshell.

MR. AND MRS. McCLAIN ENTERTAIN AT CHARMING BUFFET-SUPPER THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McClain entertained at a very charming seven o'clock buffet-supper party at their attractive home on South Jackson street Thursday evening. The buffet table was centered with a beautiful May basket, flanked by tall yellow tapers. Lovely bouquets of roses, snowballs and other colorful spring blossoms were attractively arranged about the rooms.

Guests enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. McClain included Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Watson, Miss Patricia Turner and Shirley McLaughlin.

Games were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours with Mrs. Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Reed winning the prizes.

MR. AND MRS. ENTLER ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF DAUGHTER, ELEANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, of 1444 Riverside drive in Laurelwood, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Elizabeth, to Lt. Gordon McAllister Payne, son of Mrs. Gordon Payne, of Boulder, Colorado.

Lt. Payne is at Fort Benning, Ga., at present. Miss Entler, who is very well known here having attended the local schools and also attending school in Eugene, is now returning from a visit in Honolulu, Hawaii. Her marriage to Lt. Payne will take place this summer.

B. P. W. C. HAS ENJOYABLE "KID" PARTY ON MONDAY EVENING

The Business and Professional Women's club met at a charming "kid" party Monday evening at the Episcopal parish hall with Stella Spencer, general chairman, assisted by Arlene Myers and Emma Mann.

Amanda Anderson, president, conducted the business meeting with Margaret Johnson acting as secretary. The nominating committee recommended the following officers for 1941-42: President, Margret Saunders; secretary, Elnor Sherk; recording secretary, Ethel Carpenter, and treasurer, Carrie Bell.

A report on "Sandy's Dance Revue" to be given at Hunt's Indian theater on May 14, was given by Mrs. Story Iles, chairman of the revue, which will be under the auspices of the B. P. W. C. An invitation to the W. C. T. U. old-fashioned arts benefit tea to be held Wednesday was read and a report was read on the state convention, which is to be held in Portland May 15, 16, 17. Ethel Webb was reported very ill at Mercy hospital.

Following the business meeting games and other entertainment was enjoyed and prizes were awarded. The members and guests attended the party in "kid" costumes. Sula Parkinson acted as chief of police and fined those attending who were not in costume and also figured ways of fining those in costume, so that the evening's benefit fund was soon enlarged as a result of the social hour.

Refreshments were served later by the committee. Those enjoying the occasion included: Amanda Anderson, president, Margaret Johnson, Rebecca Crockett, Ina Farnsworth, Verna Carothers, Margaret Watkins, Gene Mills, Elnor Sherk, Althea Caraway, Carrie Bell, Ethel Carpenter, Thelma Slattery, Mildred Horn, Dolma Grobe, Martha Perry, Dorothy Norton, Emma Mann, Sula Parkinson, Stella Spencer, Elizabeth Garrett, Lena C. Married At Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brinkmeyer

Miss Pauline Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Elliott, of Roseburg, and Edward Brinkmeyer, of this city, were married at a very impressive ceremony at ten o'clock Saturday morning, April 26th, at St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. W. A. Sylwester performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Snowballs banked the altar, while large baskets of iris were used at either side of the rostrum. Miss Vera Goetz played the wedding march and wedding music.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of peach-colored organdy. She carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner rosebuds. Her mother, Mrs. A. Elliott, gowned in an attractive blue model, acted as matron of honor and R. Stritsky, of Dixonville, acted as best man to the bridegroom. Bert Bolling and Orville Elliott were ushers.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held for relatives and close friends at the home of the bride's parents. At the close of the reception the couple left for coast points on a honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school in the 1940 class. Mr. Brinkmeyer received his education in the east and at present is employed by the Joelson Sawmill company.
