News of Douglas County

Wilbur

WILBUR, April 27.—Mr. and Charlie Grubbe and Wm. Tate, of Portland, are visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson. Mr. Grubbs is employed by the telephone and Telegraph company as tree trimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Winniford and daughter, Lauralee, and son, Harold, from Garden Valley, visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barneburg Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Beaty have moved on the Jim Cook place on the west side. Mr. Cook left last week to join the army.

Mrs. Everett Phillips and Mrs. Tear of Eugene were week-end visitors in Wilbur, and at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, on the North Umpqua.

Mrs. Floyd Wilson, of Oakland, Calif., arrived here Tuesday to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barneburg.

Miss Jane Irving and her mother, Mrs. Lois Irving, were home over the week-end from Canby, where the former is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holcomb, who were recently married in San Francisco, spent the past week visiting the former's parents at Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Holcomb and his aunt and uncle, I. B. Holcomb, in Wilbur. He is employed at the filter center in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ayres and family and Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Brownsville were visiting friends in Wilbur Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ayres were Wilbur teachers last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Vincent have moved to Eugene, where he is employed by the S. P. Co.

J. Ross Hutchinson spent a few days last week at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon LaRaut.

Jess Russell was appointed road supervisor in the place of Louie Smith, who has accepted employment on the state highway.

The eighth grade class of the Wilbur school organized for the purpose of making preparation for graduation the latter part of May. The following officers were elected: Elaine Jordan, president; Ray Wilder, vice-president; Domingo Sabala, secretary and treasurer; Elaine Jordan having made the highest class average for the year will be valedictorian and Bessie Aquiso, averaged second highest, will be salutorian.

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, April 28.—Mr. and Mrs. George Taggart enjoyed a very pleasant visit with their daughter, Mrs. Lynn Holt, of Harrisburg, who came and stayed a couple of days with her parents.

Mrs. Fred Neal, who underwent a major operation at Mercy hospital last week, is recovering satisfactorily.

Dr. and Mrs. Verne Adams are having a short vacation, which they planned to spend in northern Washington and B. C. They are expected back the last of the week.

The sawmill at the depot has been put under new management and is closed down temporarily while undergoing an overhauling for repairs.

Mrs. Alice Stimson, who is quite ill with heart trouble, is recovering slowly and expects to be able to be taken to her home on North Myrtle soon.

Miss Mabel Wiliams, 3rd and 4th grade teacher at Sutherlin, was home for the week-end. She has accepted the position of 5th and 6th grade teacher here next year.

Mrs. Annie Critchfield, who is at the county hospital convalescing from a broken hip, is reported to be getting along fine. Hiram Smith, who has been very ill from a severe cold for the past two weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Veta Norman, is much improved. Mr. Smith is almost 86 years old. Mrs. Tillie Blake, who lives at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Dunnavin, is not much improved. She has been bedfast for several weeks.

Mrs. Emma Brill writes from Portland that she is still improving from her recent illness.

Victor Wynter has returned home from Portland where he has been employed on defense work.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Murphy and baby, Carol, left last week for Vancouver, Wash., where Mr. Murphy has employment in the shipyards. He has been working here with the state engineers on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whitney have begun building a cottage on their lot at the corner of Cedar and Johnson streets. The foundation stones are being laid and actual construction will soon be in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Adamson have returned from Susanville, California, where Mr. Adamson has been working in a lumber yard. They encountered very bad weather on the trip, even running into snow and a blizzard in Lake county.

Word was received by friends some time ago that Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns have moved from Klamath Falls to Longview, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Poling of Corvallis, were calling on friends here the last of the week and visiting with Mrs. Poling's sister, Miss Lela Weberg. Mr. Poling was principal of the high school here about five years ago.

Harold Gould has finished his shipping of tulips for this season but his gardens are a riot of color and beauty now since the late flowers are all out in bloom. Peony shipping will be on in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. White and son, Bobby, of Sutherlin, were Myrtle Creek visitors last Saturday. The Whites are well known here having lived here about ten years before moving to Sutherlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Conley and daughter, Yvonne, of Portland visited here with relatives and friends over the week-end. Miss Yvonne is employed as a clerk at the Bonneville dam headquarters.

Mrs. Elma Hall is reported to be quite ill at her home on South Myrtle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Portouw and daughter, Yvonne, motored down from their home in Portland for a short visit with Mrs. Portouw's mother, Mrs. Jane Knight, last week-end.

Carl Knight of Nuggett was calling on friends in town last Monday.

Mrs. Anna Potter has been on the sick list lately. Mrs. Potter is almost 85 years old. A. A. Frederick, who is past 90 had the misfortune to break his hip last winter and is a shut-in, which is very hard on him as, in spite of his advanced age and near-blindness for several years, he has always been very active and a great walker.

Van Zehrung, who is working in a defense plant in San Francisco, was home Saturday and Sunday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zehrung.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dyer at Bly, Oregon, April 21st, a daughter. Mr. Dyer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Goldie Dyer of Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Dyer was Judy Prowell of Dillard.

Yoncalla

YONCALLA, April 28—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sefton and daughter, Charmaine, spent the week-end visiting relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stonaker spent Sunday visiting relatives in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bohlander of Seattle, Wash., visited at the Dare Kingery home recently.

Mrs. Grace Cowan, teacher at Oakridge, spent the week-end here with her son, Dale.

Mrs. M. E. Fast, who has been visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fast, left Saturday for Buffalo, N. Y. En route she will visit in Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Marget Holt of Ashland spent several days recently visiting her cousin, Mrs. Dollie Lamb.

Mrs. Clyde Larson spent the week-end with her parents in Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Avery Laswell, who has been ill in the Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene, returned to her home here Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Bell and daughter left last week for Clatskanine to visit her sister, who just returned from Hawaii.

Miss Belle Housley of Klamath Falls visited her mother, Mrs. Housley, of Scotts valley, over the week-end.

Miss Irene Brody of San Jose, Calif., spent several days recently visiting her father in Shoe String.

Word has been received from Empire of the birth of a son, Carol Rae, to Mr. and Mrs. Alton Noel. Mrs. Noel will be remembered as Martha Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson have sold their stock ranch in Scotts valley to Mr. and Mrs. James Grant of Honolulu, T. H.

Ed and Lee Wertz have purchased the Sarah Applegate home in town. They will remodeled the house before moving in.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Vance and family have moved to the Elmer Gilmer ranch on Mill Town hill. Mr. and Mrs. Plowman have moved into the Wilson house left vacant by the Vances. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ward have moved into the Kenneth Toner house.

A new porch has been added to the Red Cross headquarters and water has been piped into the kitchen. Nathan Crowe did the carpenter work on the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Marim Holm and daughter of Hayhurst moved to Glide last week to be near Mr. Holm's work.

Lawrence Radabaugh sold a fat bull to the Cottage Grove butcher last week, which weighed 1800 pounds, netting over $170.00 to Mr. Radabaugh.

Little Janice Applegate returned home Saturday after spending a week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Vincent Applegate in Roseburg.

The annual spring silver tea, sponsored by the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church, which was postponed last week will be given, Thursday afternoon, April 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hunter and two daughters, Doreen and Susan, spent the week-end with relatives in Gresham.

Sutherlin

SUTHERLIN, April 27—Miss Frieda Brauninger from Roseburg spent the last week at the C. Brauninger home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elson and sons, David and Jimmie, of Medford spent the week-end at the A. Coenenberg home. Mrs. Elson is a daughter of Mrs. Coenenberg.

Mrs. Roy De Young of Cottage Grove visited friends here last Saturday.

Mrs. D. Barnes spent the past week at her home east of Sutherlin, being joined Saturday by Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Green who drove up from Gold Hill. All three returned to Gold Hill Monday. Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Green are employed at the army cantonment at Medford.

Miss Doris Carr and Miss Marie Shirley who are employed at Cottage Grove spent the week end here with Mrs. C. L. Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kennedy of Reedsport were Sunday visitors at the C. Brauninger home.

Monte Rountree arrived Saturday for a two weeks visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham, and friends. He is employed in the Lockheed airplane plant in Los Angeles.

The Nonpareil Listening Post is sponsoring a benefit dance at the Nonpareil Community hall this Saturday night, April 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Medley of Oakland visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Dale Green is night nurse for Mason Davidson who is ill in Mercy hospital with pneumonia He expects to return home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hunter entertained a few friends at their home Sunday celebrating their fortieth wedding anniversary.

Jesse Cooper is finishing the kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Selleck's new home.

Several people from Sutherlin attended a Red Cross meeting in Oakland Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parazoo drove to Portland last week to see their twin daughters who are in the Doernbecher hospital.

Mrs. Clifford Morningstar and daughter of Venetta are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cooper, until Thursday of this week.

Mrs. John Lamoreaux stopped at the Edward Lamoreaux home Monday while enroute to her home at Riverside from Portland where she had been staying with Mr. Lamoreaux who is ill in the Veterans hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cook have moved from the house at the mine into Mr. and Mrs. John Cook's house in town and the latter couple have moved into the former's house at the mine.

Mrs. Anna Babke and Mrs. Madeline Hanson returned Monday from a several weeks trip to Michigan where they visited relatives.

Chet Davis has just received a four year contract for the Elkton and Umpqua mail routes. Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux drove the Umpqua route Monday replacing Bill Adams who was off for the day.

Vern Leisinger suffered a compound fracture of the ankle Tuesday afternoon while at work in the piling. He was rushed to a Eugene hospital by Stearns ambulence

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand of Oakland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux.

Carl Brauninger who has been confined to his bed the last two weeks continues to be in a critical condition.

SUTHERLIN, April 28. Mrs. R. F. Thompson and Mrs. Jody DeYoung visited with the former's mother, Mrs. P. A. Comstock, last Saturday. The latter returned with them to their home in Cottage Grove to spend the week-end.

James Musgrove of Riddle visited here and at Oakland Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Jules Dobbeleare and Mrs. Madeline Hanson of Garden valley brought Mrs. Anna Babka home Wednesday from a few days visit there.

Wilfred Hadley of Kalispell, Mont., stopped and visited with his aunt, Mrs. Ernest W. Adamson, and family Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. I. A. Dunlap transacted business in Eugene Thursday. The doctor remained there until next Sunday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Moore are moving to Oakland Sunday due to the scarcity of houses in Sutherlin.

Charles Williams has been confined to his home for a few days with a cold.

Lewis Smith and family, former residents of Sutherlin, are moving to Veneta the first of the month where Mr. Smith will be employee in state highway work

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Keith, Mrs. Charles Brewer, and Mrs. P. C. Trozelle were Roseburg visitors Thursday.

Miss Pauline Trozelle and Miss Bonnie Alcorn returned home Friday for a visit with their parents. They have been employed in the east for several months.

Mrs. Mabel Bailey, who is employed at Ben's Cafe is spending the week-end with her husband at Corvallis.

Mrs. Arthur Smith is leaving Saturday for Portland to join her husband, who is employed in the ship yards there. Miss Genevieve Smith will remain here with Mrs. Nellie Parker until the end of the school year.

Mrs. W. C. Wiscarson went to Gold Hill Thursday on a business trip.

Miss Barbara Daniels motored to Eugene Thursday to visit Vern Leisinger, who is confined in a hospital there with a crushed ankle.

Mrs. Fred Poulter is still confined to her bed at her home on Second avenue. She has been ill for three weeks.

Camas Valley

CAMAS VALLEY, April 28—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doyle and children, Norman and Carol, of Arago, Coos county, brought Mr. Doyle's mother, Mrs. Daisy Doyle, to the valley Tuesday to visit her father, Robert Martindale, and brother, Bud Martindale, the rest of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle and children returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Looney and two children, Kenneth and Loise, and John Looney of Marshfield, visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bessie Looney. Sunday being a very warm sunny day the visitors and Mrs. Bessie Looney and two daughters, Madeline and Joan, went to Slater Creek where they enjoyed a picnic dinner. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Looney and infant daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Gayland Looney and baby who live there.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Thrush and children of Marshfield visited a few days last week with relatives in the upper valley.

Guy Lawson purchased a garden tractor at the Galbraith ranch at Deer Creek last week.

Neal Brown is cleaning out the fence row along the county road on his mothers place and putting up a new fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mills of Grants Pass spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Markham. Both the Mills and Markhams were formerly residents of Los Angeles where Mrs. Mills and Miss Cora Ellen Markham were schoolmates.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Garbodin of Dillard attended to business matters and called on friends in the valley Wednesday.

Mrs. Dick Bangs and daughter, Dorothy Ann, of Scottsburg spent the week end at the home of the former's father, R. W. Dick.

Some of the men from the Standley Brothers logging camp on Iron mountain came out the last of the week as there was too much snow to work in.

Mrs. Susan Smith went to Drain Sunday with her grandson, Howard Brown, as he returned to his work in a logging camp near Reedsport. Mrs. Smith has been visiting here for some time with her daughter, Mrs. F. R. Brown, and will visit a son, Walter Smith, in Drain.

The mail route has been established in the valley and Thursday was the first day it was delivered. G. R. Moore received the appointment as mail-carrier so had to resign his position as teacher in the high school. Seventy-three boxes have been put up on the route followed and one hundred and five families were served. Several roads are not included in the route but it is hoped they will be later on.

Drain

DRAIN, April 28.—John and Homer Hedrick have received notification of their call to the U. S. army.

Lewis Lakey, who has been in an army camp in Texas, was transferred last week to Savannah, Georgia. Mrs. Lakey, who recently went to Texas to be near her husband also started for Savannah, where she expects to remain while he is stationed there.

Fred Sanders of Walla Walla, Wash., came last week to attend the funeral of his brother, Richard L. Sanders, and visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Joe Cellers, and his brother, G. V. Sanders, and other relatives.

Mrs. Ruth Lakey is convalescing from a recent operation at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Davis, but expects to return to her own home this week.

Mrs. Jim Bragg was taken last week to a Eugene hospital where she was operated on for appendicitis. She was recovering nicely at last report.

Mrs. Chas. Hull and small son, David, of Klamath Falls, came last Monday for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Lottie Vandevert. Mrs. Hull drove on Sunday with her husband to Portland where he took an airplane to New York. After passing the required tests he will go on to Iceland, as a master mechanic in defense work. Mrs. Hull and son, David, returned home to Klamath Falls Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Max Vandevert of Dunsmuir, Calif., visited at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lottie Vandevert, last Friday.

Miss Fannie Lenore Clemo, of Elkton, was elected at a recent board meeting as teacher in the grade school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Nancy Taggart.

Grade school teachers for the coming year met Monday evening for a potluck supper and social hour. Afterward plans were made for the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Reijonen of Washington recently bought the Whit Kirtley property, and moved in last week. The Paul Crattys who owned the place moved to Roseburg.

Azalea

AZALEA, April 27.—Vernon Caylor returned to his home here Sunday after spending several days in the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford where he underwent a mastoid operation.

Mrs. Andy Leeper from Roseburg spent several days here last week visiting friends. She formerly resided here.

Mrs. Walter Kemp, Mrs. Jake Fisher, Mrs. F. N. Harrell and Mrs. Henry Gaedecke attended an Eastern Star meeting in Grants Pass Monday night.

Mrs. Stanley Jantzer spent Tuesday in Grants Pass where she had dental work done.

Mrs. Inez Smith, Mrs. F. N. Harrell and Mrs. Henry Gaedecke made a trip to Roseburg Thursday evening to attend an Eastern Star meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Salvage shopped in Roseburg Saturday.

Amery and Opal Eastman shopped in Roseburg Friday.

B. E. Sparks made a business trip to Roseburg Tuesday.

Mrs. Russell Hill returned to her home here Monday morning after spending several days in Portland where she attended an F. L. convention.

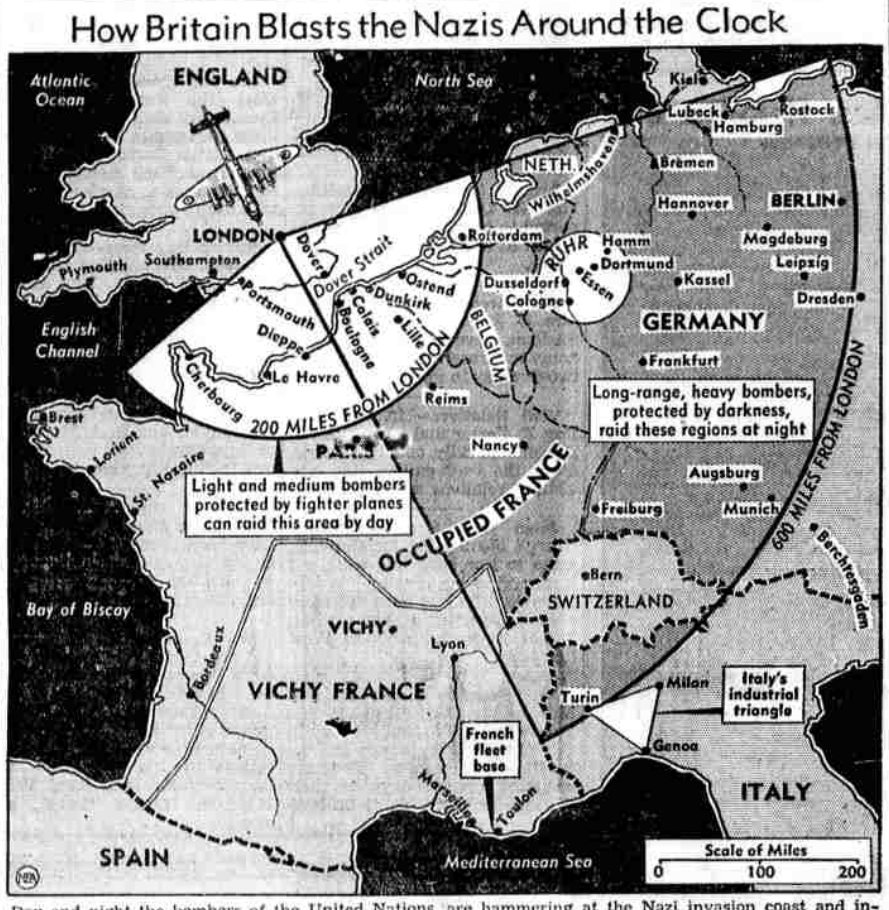
Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Fisher and family from Toledo visited here over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brenner and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parks. Mrs. Fisher remained here to visit.

Punishment

In Huntington, Ind., traffic violators have a "scarlet letter" pasted on their automobile windshields. These must be carried for 30 days.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

How Britain Blasts the Nazis Around the Clock



Day and night the bombers of the United Nations are hammering at the Nazi invasion coast and industrial interiors of Germany and Italy as shown on the map. Short-range RAF fighters can't make it to Berlin, but can protect bombers raiding Nazi bases on the nearby occupied French coast.

VERILY, master, birds will fly without wings 'ere you get sounder advice on good whiskey than: "The very best buy is the whiskey that's dry—Paul Jones!"

—From the dry sayings of the Paul Jones Camel

Paul Jones

$1.35 a Pint $2.60 a Quart

BOURBON OR RYE

A blend of straight whiskies—90 proof. Frankfort Distilleries, Inc., Louisville & Baltimore.

TIGHTEN UP!

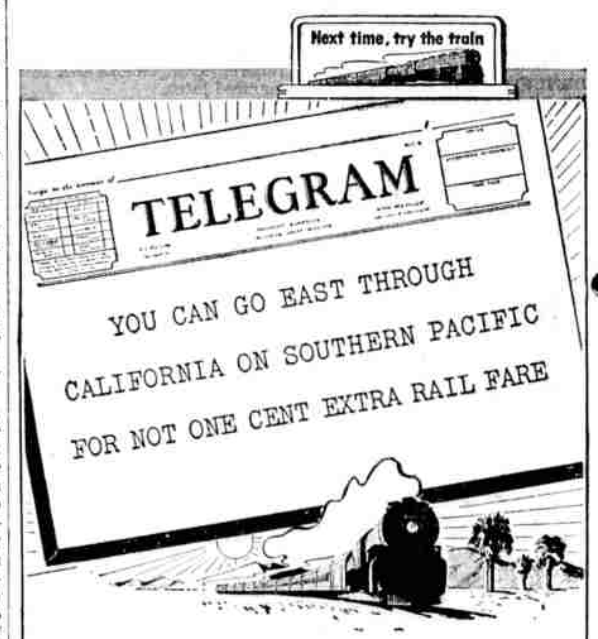
Look to the small losses and leaks in your work or business. Co-op saving may come in handy when this war is over. Buy where—

"You Own the Profits"

DOUGLAS COUNTY

Farm Bureau Co-Operative Exchange

ROSEBURG, ORE.



IT'S A FACT!

ON roundtrip tickets to New York, Chicago and most other eastern cities, the Southern Pacific will take you east through San Francisco and Los Angeles for not 1¢ more rail fare than you'd pay to go direct.

Before you plan your trip east, investigate this amazing bargain.

S·P

The Friendly Southern Pacific

See J. E. Clark, Agent, Phone 11, or, write J. A. ORMANDY, G. P. A., 622 Pacific Bldg., Portland, Ore.