Sunday at the Churches

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor. "There Shall Be No Alps" is the sermon topic at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Frank Grubbe will be the soloist. All members and friends are urged to be present Sunday morning and remain a few minutes after the sermon for a business meeting. The service will not be broadcast this Sunday.

"One Love that Was Not Blind" is the topic Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. This is a sermon on the book of Ruth. Several women or girls named Ruth will assist in the program Sunday evening. Is it right for a young lady to give up prospects for marriage in order to support her parents. After ten years would you know the old home town? What do you do with bitter memories? Does common sense or emotion rule our lives? Should May marry December? Are you a matchmaker? Should a woman propose? If a woman has been happily married once and lost her husband should she remarry or remain single?

Glie

GLIDE, Ore., Sept. 17.—Mrs. Martha Howard and daughter, Sue, have returned to the Shrum cottage for the winter. Mrs. Howard is one of the school teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Marr and son, Harold, have returned from an extended trip through Klamath county, the eastern and northern parts of the state, sight seeing and visiting relatives.

Leonard Riley's father from McMinnville is visiting at the home of his son.

Miss Dorothy Dimmick and brother from Grants Pass are spending several days at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Doerksen.

Arthur Blakely, of Roseburg, was at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Alexander, two days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Green and daughters, Mardell and Arlos, parents and sisters of Mrs. R. P. Blakely, have moved from Roseburg to Eugene, where Mr. Green is now employed.

Mrs. Esther LaBonte and children have returned from the Willamette valley where they have been picking beans, and left immediately to work in a prune orchard.

Rev. and Mrs. Jess Johnson, of Eugene, spent Sunday in Glide. Mr. Johnson delivered the sermon in the morning at the Church of Christ. Mr. Johnson is representing the Christian mission of Eugene, which is sponsored by the young preachers of the Eugene Bible college.

William Frarecks was home last week-end. He expects to return the last of this week and take his wife and her mother, Mrs. Anna Doyle, back to Portland with him, where they will live permanently.

Cardinals Boost Lead in Pennant Race to 3 Games

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

It looks like you can head for St. Louis for your world series fun, and from what's been going on here lately it is no longer so much the Cardinals winning as the Dodgers losing the National league flag.

For, if ever a club looked like it had folded up, the Dodgers did just that yesterday in dropping a 3-2 decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates for their sixth setback in seven games.

What made the bums seem all the more pathetic was the way the Cards kept right on fighting in Boston and finally won out 6-4 with a five-run blast in the ninth, to go three games in front in the pennant parade.

With the hot National league shindig still just about the whole show, the chief supporting features of the day saw the New York Yankees win their 100th ball game to break a record they already had in the books and Hughson join the select "20-game-winners" pitching set.

DiMaggio's Homer Wins

Joe DiMaggio's 20th homer of the season, good for three runs, was the big blow for the Yanks as they knocked off the Detroit Tigers 7-4. This marked the eighth season in which the bombers had chalked up 100 or more victories, adding one more year to the mark they already had.

Hughson became the first 20-game winner for the Boston Red Sox since the hey-day of Wesley Ferrell. He spread nine hits among the St. Louis Browns and galloped off with a 5-1 decision.

The pitching job of the afternoon came out of the Philadelphia Athletics. Wolf handcuffed the Chicago White Sox with just two safeties for a 1-0 victory.

In Cleveland, Hudson arrived on the scene in the 11th inning for the Senators just in time to walk home the winning run that gave the Indians a 6 to 5 ball game.

Young clouted a homer and three singles and knocked in seven runs to back up Feldman's five-hit fast-balling and give the New York Giants an easy 11-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo grounds.

The Chicago Cubs flailed the Phillies 8-0 behind Wyse's eight-hit whitewashing job.

Angels Halted By Sactos One Game Short of Pennant

(By the Associated Press)

Sacramento, which has been discounted more than once as a serious menace to Los Angeles' Pacific Coast league championship hopes, fooled the dopesters again by remaining as a contender today.

The Angels need only one more game to clinch the pennant.

That was all they needed yesterday, but the Senators defeated them 5 to 4 in a desperate game in which both sides brought up their home run hitters.

The game and the championship appeared all wrapped up for Los Angeles which held a 4-1 lead at the end of its half of the eighth. Centerfielder Lowrey had uncorked a home run in the sixth which brought in one ahead of him.

Then Adams and Mueller homered for Sacramento in the last half of the eighth, bringing in enough runs to tie the score. Second baseman Hughes, trying for a double play, threw wild and was responsible for the winning run in the ninth.

San Francisco duplicated Sacramento's feat by trouncing San Diego 6-0 and robbing the Padres of the one game they needed to clinch an upper division spot for the Shaughnessy playoffs. The Seals' Joyce stayed on the mound throughout, allowing only four hits.

Seattle ended its losing streak at Oakland by beating the Acorns 5 to 0 and Hollywood used seven hits, one fewer than the Beavers obtained, to defeat Portland 6-1.

Dick Barrett's shutout over Oakland was based on five-hit pitching. Oakland tried three hurlers unsuccessfully and Buxton was labeled the loser. Three Oak errors contributed.
