Kids Hold 'Bicycle Court'

Reckless bicycle riders will be hailed into a special court to face a jury of their juvenile peers in Bloomfield, N. J. The court is being started by police and school authorities and tentative plans call for court sessions once a week in each of five elementary schools. Five students will be jurors and a police officer will preside. Suggested penalties for bike riders are an essay on bicycle safety for first offenders and suspension of bike riding privileges for third offenders.

This War Debt Paid

Following the Boxer rebellion against foreigners in China, that country agreed to pay for damages suffered. The United States felt that her share was excessive and returned half of it, or about 12 million dollars. China used the funds to send Chinese to schools in this country.

LONDON 4-H MOTHERS OBSERVE 7TH BIRTHDAY

To celebrate the seventh year of their organization members of London 4-H Mothers Club met at their clubhouse on Wednesday with a large attendance of members and guests. At the brief business meeting a short history of the club was related and three of the charter members, Juanita Bemis, Esther Banton and Jeanne Morton, were present. Business consisted of discussion of the parties for 4-H club members and the first party to be sponsored is to be held at the clubhouse on the evening of Jan. 30. Goldie Gunn and Herma Abeene are to be chaperones at the affair and the 4-H Clothing club girls will make party arrangements.

There was a report on the recently organized clothing club at London school by their leader, Jeanne Morton. Volunteer leaders for a cookery club for the younger school group were requested. Marie Stein, president, asked for donations for the March-Of-Dimes and it was voted that the club donate a dime for each 23 members from the club treasury. In addition to this a collection was made at the meeting adding $2.83 to this fund.

The highlight of the afternoon was a stork shower for Mrs. Robert Woods at which she was honored with many lovely gifts. Refreshments included birthday cake and were served by the committee: Gladys Kelley, Mabel Barnes, Lawana Sugg, Goldie Gunn and Juanita Bemis. Guests at the event were Mmes. Tolly Manning, Willis Garman, Ralph Raisor, Bert Tullar, Claude Abeene, Julian Small, S. Thomas Clark and Mrs. C. E. Fisher of Portland.

White Lead Value

The secret of white lead's success is its resistance to weather wear. It forms a tough, elastic film that withstands the expansion and contraction of the surface it covers without cracking and scaling. It just wears down stubbornly from the outer surface inward. This prevents unsightly cracking and scaling, as occur with hard, brittle paints.

Wife Preservers

Unwrap the meat at once when you bring it home from the butcher's and put it in the coldest part of the refrigerator. The paper, if left on, will absorb juices of the meat.
