Lt. and Mrs. Darwin J. Davis, Jr.

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg is that of Miss Rosemary Harrison, Lieutenant (jg) U. S. navy reserve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Harrison, of Portland, formerly of Roseburg and Darwin J. Davis, Jr., Lieutenant (jg) U. S. navy reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin J. Davis of Salem, West Virginia, at Saint Cornelius chapel, Governor's Island, New York, Saturday, September 9. Chaplain Perry Smith, of the U. S. army, formerly rector of St. George's Episcopal church of Roseburg, performed the impressive ceremony at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Tall white tapers and white gladioli formed the beautiful altar decorations.

Mrs. Josephine Steler, of Lancaster, Pa., was soloist and Lt. Colonel Albert Russell, U. S. army, played the wedding music on the pipe organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her great-uncle, Virgil V. Johnson, of New York City, was very lovely in a wedding gown fashioned with a white satin bodice, full tulle floor-length skirt and finger-tip wedding veil with a beaded Juliet cap. Her flowers were arranged in a cascade of white roses and bouvardia.

Lieutenant (jg) Gladys R. Jay, of the U. S. navy reserve, Pearl River, New York, and Lieutenant (jg) Mary Louise McDevit, U. S. navy reserve, Llanerch, Pa., were attendants and wore charming yellow and blue organdy gowns and carried nosegays of blue delphinium and yellow roses. Ensign Robert Carpenter, U. S. navy reserve, Elizabeth, New Jersey, was best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Army Officers club, Governor's Island. Out-of-town guests included the mother of the bride, Mrs. Julius L. Harrison, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Frederick Hibbard and Miss Helen Johnson of Brookline, Mass.

After October 1 the bride and bridegroom will be at home at 47 Dresser street, Newport, Rhode Island.

The bride is very well known in Roseburg, where she attended school and later moved to Bandon with her parents. She attended University of Oregon and has been stationed at the Port Director's office in New York since January, 1943. The bridegroom was graduated from Salem college, Salem, W. Va., and is stationed at N. O. B., Newport, Rhode Island.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY HAS FIRST FALL MEETING AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The first fall meeting of the Woman's society of the First Presbyterian church was held at a charming tea at the church parlors at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Earl Plummer was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft, Mrs. Morris H. Roach and Mrs. J. Roland Parker.

Gladioli, asters and dahlias were arranged in beautiful bouquets about the room, while the lace-covered tea table was centered by a bowl of yellow and bronze zinnias with baby's breath and flanked by yellow tapers. Mrs. J. Roland Parker had charge of the decorations.

Mrs. O. S. Chambers, president, conducted the meeting and committee reports were made by Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. Morris H. Roach and Mrs. J. Roland Parker. Mrs. Roach gave a talk on spiritual life and stressed that the church had more need for it in its work.

It was announced that a Presbyterial meeting will be held at Oakland, Oct. 4, 1944.

The church is gathering cotton rags as a project and all persons having donations to make are asked to leave them at the church.

Mrs. Armour Murdock acted as chairman of the program in the absence of Mrs. W. M. Campbell. Dr. Morris H. Roach presented a very interesting review of the subject, "Do You Want a Christian World?"

Refreshments were served at the tea hour to: Mrs. Ray Bruch and daughter Barbara, Mrs. H. B. Ott, Mrs. F. C. Frear, Mrs. A. C. Fries, Mrs. E. Court and daughter, Audra, and Mrs. L. H. Campbell, guests and Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. J. Roland Parker, Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft, Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach and daughter Betty, Mrs. C. E. WEDDING OF BERNIECE JACK AND C. D. JOHNSON AT HOME OF THE BRIDE

A very lovely wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Makin Jack on South Pine street, when their daughter, Berniece, became the bride of C. D. Johnson. Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the First Baptist church of Roseburg, performed the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride was attractive in a dressmaker style suit of purple with white accessories and a corsage of white blossoms. Miss Myrle Saint, of Marshfield, was bridesmaid, and wore a brown and white figured dress with white accessories and a corsage of white flowers. Donald Carnes acted as best man. The bride's mother wore a blue suit with a corsage of white flowers. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue suit with a corsage of white blossoms.

Purple and white asters formed a pretty color-scheme for the decorations.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table was beautifully appointed and covered by a fine white linen cloth, which was given to the bridegroom's grandmother in 1805. The bronze candlesticks used were also heirlooms.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Makin Jack, parents of the bride; Mrs. Lucille M. Johnson, mother of the bridegroom; Sidney Jack, Donald Carnes; Mrs. Rosa Johnson, grandmother of the bridegroom; Miss Polly Roberts, Miss Dorothy Thomoson, of Marshfield; Miss Myrle Saint, of Marshfield; Barbara Johnson, Mrs. Jack Steinhauer, Mrs. Carl Brauninger, Miss Freeda L. Brauninger and Rev. H. P. Sconce.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have gone to Portland to make their home.

MRS. FORD SINGLETON INSTALLED PRESIDENT OF ROSEBURG LADY LIONS

The Lady Lions held a very delightful seven o'clock dinner meeting at the Hotel Umqpua Monday evening with Mrs. J. E. Henbest, past president, installing Mrs. Ford Singleton, president, and other new officers for the ensuing year.

A bowl of mixed fall blossoms and tall white tapers graced the serving table. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Ford Singleton, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, Mrs. Gerald Gilbo, Mrs. Mervin Brown, Mrs. James Bewley, Mrs. Fred Scherner, Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, Mrs. Earl Henry, Mrs. Forrest Losee, Mrs. A. E. Dalros, Mrs. H. D. Palmer, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. D. W. Hellwell and Mrs. L. M. Lehrback.

At a very impressive ceremony, Mrs. Henbest installed the following new officers: Mrs. Ford Singleton, president; Mrs. H. D. Palmer, vice-president; Mrs. Mervin Brown, secretary; Mrs. Roy Sunderland, treasurer, and Mrs. James Bewley, lion tamer.

On behalf of the club, Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, second vice-president of the state auxillary, presented a very lovely gift to the retiring president, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, who has enjoyed a year and a half as head of the club. Appreciation for her work was expressed by the members.

Each officer was presented with a beautiful corsage on behalf of the auxiliary. The corsages were made by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly.

A report of the state convention held in Portland in June was given by Mrs. Bruce Elliott.

The meeting was turned over to the new president, Mrs. Singleton, and it was voted to donate $5 to defray expenses of blood donors going to Portland.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held early in October and Mrs. Roy Sunderland and Mrs. Mervin Brown were appointed co-chairmen of the project.

The club will meet the second Monday evening in October at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Dunham on South Stephens street.

Marry at Season's Largest Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray Naff, Jr.

At the largest and most beautiful wedding of the year, Miss Rose Mary Fishback, charming daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Len B. Fishback of Roseburg, became the bride of Walter Ray Naff, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Naff, Sr., of Zillah, Wash., Monday evening, September 4 at eight o'clock at the First Christion church in Roseburg. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Len B. Fishback, pastor of the church, in the presence of hundreds of friends and relatives.

The church decorations were entirely in white, arranged with greenery, with the exception of the Baptistry, which held a lighted blue cross in the center of the white draperies. White gladioli, white asters, white dahlias and ferns filled the artistically arranged baskets at the altar, while dozens of white cathedral candles were used in large candleabra on the rostrom and outlined the balcony railing of the church. Sprays of cedar and African tamarisk banked the altar, while sprays of ivy decorated the balcony railing. Only the light from the many candles and the blue cross were used during the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Frances Lintott, organist, played "Berceuse in A" by Delbruck; "Entrancing Dream" by Lille; "Calm as the Night" by Bohm; "Nocturne" by Chopin; "Traumerei" by Schumann; "Serenade" by Schubert and "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar. Mrs. Lintott also played selections at the reception.

Mrs. Maude Skaggs Woody, professor of voice at Northwest Christian college, Eugene, who is a daughter of the first pastor of the Christian church of Roseburg, sang "Yesterday and Today."

Walter R. Naff, Jr., bridegroom, sang to the bride, "I Look at You, God's Perfection," the words and music of which were written by Chester V. Earls, Spokane, Wash., who is accompanist for the N. C. C. male quartet, of which the bridegroom was a member.

Mrs. S. E. Stevens, A. A. G. O., professor of organ at N. C. C. Eugene, played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar. She played softly on the pipe organ "Cathedral Window" by Roger Wilson, throughout the ceremany and at the close, played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.

The entire wedding party, including the bride, wore gowns of various shades of blue. The bridal procession joined the bridegroom and his attendants at the altar by passing through the aisle marked with nosegays of white asters and greenery. Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. John E. Runyan had charge of the decorations at the church. Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, Sr., and Mrs. Dexter Rice assisted with the appointments.

Miss Winona Mae Fishback, sister of the bride, and Miss Cynthia Sue Turner, lighted the candles. They wore blue taffeta formals, fashioned with sweetheart necklines and full skirts.

The bride, who is one of Roseburg's most beautiful and talented members of the younger set, was very lovely in a wedding gown of ice-blue satin, fashioned with a full-length train; beaded sweetheart, scalloped neckline; long sleeves pointed at the wrists; fitted bodice and full gathered skirt. Her veil of white tulle was a combination floor-length and shoulder length model fashioned with a crown of seedpearls. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white orchid, white stephanotis with a shower of white satin ribbons. She was given in marriage by Dr. Walter L. Myers, of Beaverton, who is a close friend of the family.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Allen Cordon; Miss Meryl Long, of Yakima, Wash., N. C. C., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were: Mrs. Charles E. Hart, Mrs. Carl Wassom, Mrs. Plin Laurance, all of Roseburg; Miss Naida Fishback, Hillsboro, freshman at U. of O.; Miss Enid Smith, Eugene, N. C. C. and Mrs. Virgil Bailes, Jefferson, Ore., N. C. C. All of the bride's attendants wore shades of light blue formals of different materials and carried nosegays of pastel colored flowers.

Vernon L. Fishback, Portland, N. C. C., brother of the bride, was best man. John Stone, Eugene, N. C. C. acted as head usher and other ushers were: Walter V. Jones, Des Moine, Wash., N. C. C.; James Kimsey, Coquille; Darrel Anderson, Roseburg; Arthur J. Watters, Stayton, N. C. C.; Truman Robbins, Jefferson, N. C. C., and Charles Beckley, Roseburg.

Dickie Fishback, young brother of the bride, was ring bearer and little Nancy Stewart and Gayle Geddes, dressed in blue net formals with rounded necklines and full skirts, were flower girls. The ring bearer wore a blue sailor suit and the bridegroom, best man, ushers and minister wore dark blue suits.

The bride's mother was charming in a gray chiffon formal with an aqua feather hat and a corsage of gardenias and red rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a blue organza formal with dark blue hat and a corsage of gardenias and red rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on South Kane street. The spacious and lovely rooms were very lovely with large bouquets of all white flowers. White dahlias formed the bouquet on the mantel of the myrtlewood fireplace, while white gladioli were used on the buffet. The bride's table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was centered with the beautiful four-tier decorated wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom standing under an arch of orange blossoms. White asters encircled the cake. A silver tea service was placed at one end of the table and a crystal punch bowl was placed at the other end. Mrs. Gordon Stewart had charge of the home decorations and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. Earl E. Wimberly assisted with appointments.

Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. H. C. Parslow, Mrs. V. J. Micelli and Mrs. Annie L. Russell alternated in pouring. Serving were: Mrs. Sidney Moon, Jr., Mrs. Donald White, Miss Ann Elliott, Miss Marjoria Irvin, Mrs. J. C. Giovianni, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner and Miss Lucia Knight, Eugene, assisted by Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mrs. Earl Rhoads, Miss Ruth Rhoads and Mrs. William Unrath.

The many beautiful wedding gifts were in charge of Miss Dorothy Smith with Mrs. Terrence Fitzgerald in charge of the guest book.

Wedding pictures and pictures taken at the reception were by Mrs. C. W. Clark and Mrs. Minnie Clark, of Clark's photo studio, and Mrs. William Unrath took motion pictures of the bridal party.

Following the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for Crescent City, Calif., and the Redwood Empire on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride chose a fuschia-wisteria wool gabardine suit with a powder-blue feather hat and matching blouse. Her hat was a black Chesterfield model and her accessories were also black. She wore a large orchid corsage.

Following their honeymoon they went to Eugene, where they are at home to their friends at 788 East Eleventh street.

The bride, who is an exceptionally fine pianist and pipe organist, is a senior at Northwest Christian college in Eugene where she is an instructor in piano. She attended the University of Oregon and studied pipe organ a year and a half under the direction of John Stark Evans and is now a student of Mrs. Stevens at N. C. C. The bridegroom is also a senior at N. C. C., and is assistant pastor and young peoples director at the Roseburg First Christian church. He is majoring in voice at Eugene and is studying for the ministry.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Naff, Sr., of Zillah Wash.; Vernon L. Fishback, Portland, brother of the bride; Arthur J. Watters, Stayton; Mrs. C. C. Fishback and daughter, Miss Naida; Mrs. Allie Kreh, Mrs. Ella Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson, all of Hillsboro; Miss Enid Smith, Miss Lucia Knight, Mrs. Maude Skaggs, Mrs. S. E. Stevens, Mrs. Maude Watters and John Stone, all of Eugene; Walter Jones, Sr., and Walter V. Jones, of Des Moine, Wash.; Dr. Walter Myers, Beaverton; Miss Meryl Long, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. Virgil Bailes and Truman Robbins, Jefferson, and Bill Hooten, Walter and James Kimsey and Jim McKinney, all of Coquille.
