Welcome Welcome

More heartwarming than the cheers, tossed bouquets and hysterical hugs that usually greet Yank liberators is the welcome given to Americans by the workers in a Dutch mining town. At the shafthead they posted a sign inviting battle-grimed Yanks to share their showerbath.

Wm. B. Beaty, Former Roseburg Resident, Dies

William B. Beaty, 39, former Roseburg resident, died Friday in San Francisco, according to word received here. Born April 22, 1905, in Missouri, he came to Roseburg in 1924 and was married Nov. 19, 1925, at Roseburg to Gladys Miller. He and Mrs. Beaty had made their home at McCreadie Springs, Lane county, since their marriage. The widow and three daughters survive. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Springfield.

Glide

GLIDE — Earl Duncan and Bruce Yeager, who is on leave from the U. S. marine corps, have returned from a hunting trip at Mud lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Talcott took their son, Watson, back to the naval base at Arcata, Calif., Sunday and visited en route at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christianson, also with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Horner at Brookings, Ore. Both families formerly lived at Glide. Mr. Horner is principal of the Brookings high school, having held the same position at Glide for several years. Their daughter, Mrs. John Mason, is staying with her parents as her husband is serving overseas.

The floor of the basement at the Baptist church has been given several coats of paint which greatly improves the looks of the basement.

The ladies of the grange are entertaining the men and invited guests Saturday evening, Oct. 28.

Velma Strong, high school student, who has been confined to her home with a knee injury, has returned to school, but is still on crutches.

A large crowd is anticipated at the annual Halloween carnival to be held at the school gym Nov. 3. Food booths will be open, also various games and raffles.

Lester Blakely is reported to be ill at his home here.
