Priority Blanks For Builders Now Available Here

An additional set of applications for building priorities, the third to be obtained recently, has been received at the office of the Roseburg chamber of commerce, Harold J. Hickerson, secretary, reported today. Application forms received a few days ago were exhausted almost immediately, Hickerson stated. Only 16 sets of blanks were obtained today and the secretary was advised it may be some time before further requests for priorities will be accepted as the quota established for Douglas county is nearly filled.

The applications are being made by persons who desire to construct residences with private capital. Federal loans are not available in connection with these priorities, it was explained, and applications are required to show sufficient private financing available to complete the project.

Salem Firm Ordered to Reinstate Employes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The National Labor Relations board ruled today that United Growers, Inc., Salem, Ore., had engaged in unfair labor practices and ordered the firm to cease discouraging union membership.

The board's ruling upheld the decision of the trial examiner who heard the case brought by the AFL Cannery Workers' union. The board ordered reinstatement and payment of back wages to two employes who the union charged were dismissed because of union activity.

Red-Slav Drive Aims Triple Blow at Germans

LONDON, Nov. 30—(AP)—Russian and Yugoslav partisan forces thrust forward 25 miles west of the Danube in southwestern Hungary today in a huge offensive that has the three-fold possibility of encircling Budapest, driving straight into Austria and sealing off all nazi troops in the Balkans.

Premier Stalin yesterday announced the capture of 350 communities in southern Hungary and northen Yugoslavia, confirming the drive about which the German radio has spoken for the last week.

Budapest, meanwhile, was under close siege from the northeast.

Doctors in Dope Case Given Terms in Prison

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 30.—Two Medford physicians, Dr. R. W. Clancy, 68, and Dr. F. W. Walter Kresse, 52, convicted last month in federal court at Medford for Harrison narcotics act violations, Wednesday were sentenced here by Federal Judge Fee to four years and nine months each in prison.

In addition, the court imposed fines totaling $8000 upon Dr. Clancy and fined Dr. Kresse $1000.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Fee pointed out that the two physicians, each convicted on four counts of having illegalty issued large amounts of narcotics, were chiefly responsible for a narcotics situation in Medford which, according to competent reports, was the worst in the United States.
