Broad Street, Philadelphia, is the longest asphalted street in the world. Seven miles of the street is asphalted. It is 113 feet wide, which is the greatest width of any street in the world for its length, which is 11 miles. It is also the straightest street for its length.

A plan is on foot to establish an automobile line between New York and Morristown, N. J. The residents of that town object to a trolley line which it is proposed to construct, and it is possible that the traction company will start an automobile line, which will be unobjectionable.

More than 125,000,000 grains of quinine have been consumed by the American soldiers during the past year. In some cases men who were in the hospitals in Cuba and Porto Rico used as much as 300 grains a week, and hardly any have failed to use the drug at some period of their service. It is stated that the people of this country consume one-third of the quinine of the world.

Religious Liberty.

The growth of liberality in religious thought is illustrated by the fact that no one dreams of fabricating such slanders about the death of Ingersoll as long passed current in regard to Hume and Paine. The circumstances of Colonel Ingersoll's death are, of course, too well known to give an opening to calumny, but the truth in regard to Hume and Paine was quite accessible, if their libelers had taken the pains to investigate. There seems to have been evolved within a century a conscience against lying as a religious duty. —[Springfield Republican.

Secularists would you not like to have some letterheads printed with Secular sentiment and Wettstein's Freethought badge, to use in correspondence with your friends? Remember, if you send us the names and addresses of 25 of your Liberal friends and acquaintances, we will make you a present of a copy of the Torch of Reason Song Book No. 1. This will only cost you a few minutes' work and a two-cent stamp.
