Navy Man Denied Leave To Visit Dying Terrier

BREMERTON, Wash., Jan. 17. —(AP)—Signalman 2/c Harry E. Bennett, 22, of Detroit, will not get to see his 21-year-old pet Boston Terrier, "Honey Girl" before he is assigned overseas.

Navy authorities yesterday turned down his request that he be given leave to see his pet who a Detroit veterinarian says has no more than two weeks to live.

A 13th Naval district spokesman said it sometimes was even necessary to deny leave to men who wished to visit sick relatives.

For sale or rent, used Titan power saws. We have a number of used machines that are in good condition, fom $225 up. We also have a number of good drag saws from $50 to $125. Remember we still sell the new lightweight Mall power saw.
