Oregon Timber is Timber.

The purchase by Congressman J. W Fordney of 8000 acres of timber land in Clark County, Wash., at the rate of $50 an acre, illustrates the manner is which the forests of the Northweshave advanced in value within the past five years. The sale was made by Dr. Wolverton, a retired army surgeon, who has been making odd purchases back of Vancouver for sometime. The tract is situated in town ship 5 north, range 4 west, and is known to timber men as a very dealrable piece of timber.

Another important purchase is that of 5000 acres by the Sumpter Valler Railroad people, in the Hood Rive country. This tract was bought from N. B. Bradley & Son, of Bay City Mich., who had held it but a few months. The exact figures of this sale have not been made public, but those posted on the subject aver the Bradley & Son cleaned up $60,000 by the deal. The purchasers are connected with the Mormon church, and already have heavy interests at Hood River and in Eaker and Grant Counties.

A $100,000 deal is also reported from

The purchase of the numerous tracts of timber land held b. proyate individuals in Columbia County le an assurance of a remarkable degree of prosperity for the next dozen years or longer. These purchases are not for longer. These purchases are not for longer than a propose erecting a modern sawmill a longer.

18.22 of County Superintendent I. H. Copeland:

1. H. Goseland, the present school superintendent of Columbia county, is a native Oregonian, having been born at Portland. His early education was received in Columbia county after which he attended the State Normal School at Monmouth three years, from which he graduated in 18.85, taking first honors in a class of ten. As a foundation for the study of medicine, he took a four years' course in the University of Kentucky, 18.81, 1887-1891. After this on account of poor health he spent several years in Southern California, studying and working out of doors on a fruit farm. On returning to Oregon he was elected school superintendent of Columbia county at the June election of 1898. In addition to his work as superintendent of the county he served one year as principal of the public school at St. Helens and two years in the same capacity at Houlton. Supt. Copeland's work meets with high appreciation in Columbia county.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than the former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. Eor sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.
