AT THE COVEY MOTOR CAR COMPANY PLANT.
All things being equal, it is our opinion that a used car of reputable make in good condition should sell on our floor in a certain time. It seems, however, that owing to the former gasoline shortage and other more or less unsettled conditions the demand for cars was greatly curtailed.
This being the case we wish to dispose of at once a certain number of excellent cars at very special prices; prices far below their actual value, and you will find these cars distributed through the following list:
