That you, and each of you, are hereby further notified that plaintiff will apply to the Court herein for a decree foreclosing the liens described and mentioned in the foregoing certificates of delinquency, and each and every thereof, and each of you are hereby notified that unless you appear and answer or otherwise defend this suit , or pay the amount due, as shown above, together with the interest from the date of issuance of said certificate or certificates, together with accruing costs and disbursemests herein, within sixty (60) days from the date of the first publication hereof, and for want thereof plaintiff will take a decree of this Court foreclosing the liens of said certificates as hereinbefore described.

You will take notice that this summons is served upon you under and by virtue of, and pursuant, to an order of the Honorable Dalton Biggs, Judge of the Circuit Court in and for said County and State, which said order was made and entered herein on the 24th day of January, A. D. 1922, and directing that this summons be published for six (6) consecutive weeks, including seven (7) publications in the Ontario Argus, a newspaper of general circulation published at Ontario, Oregon.

The date of the first publication is January 26, 1922, and the date of the last publication is March 9, 1922.

All process in this suit may be served upon Robt. D. Lytle, District Attorney at his office in the City of Vale, Malheur County, Oregon.

H. LEE NOE,
Sheriff of Malheur County, Oregon, Residence and Postoffice, Vale, Oregon.
ROBT. D. LYTLE,
District Attorney, Residence and Postoffice, Vale, Oregon.

A new feature of the income tax law requires that every person who had a gross income of $5,000 or more for 1921, must file a return, regardless of whether or not that sum yielded him a cent of profit. To illustrate: "A" received from his business and other sources $5,000 during the year 1921, but his deductible expenses for the year aggregated $4,500. His net income being less than $1000, A would not have to pay an income tax. However, he is required under the law to file an income tax return if his gross income was $5,000, or more, regardless of whether or not he realizes any profit. These returns must be filed in the office of Clyde G. Huntley, Collector of Internal Revenue, not later than March 15, 1922.
