Brown was a speaker today at the regular meeting of the Roseburg Kiwanis Club.

Quarelling Pair in Auto Cause Tragic Accident

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2.—(AP)—A car whose driver, according to traffic investigators, was quarreling with his wife drove onto a sidewalk today and knocked two pedestrians through a plate glass window.

Phyllis Converse, 20, Vancouver, suffered serious injuries to her left leg and was in danger of amputation. Hospital attendants reported both Miss Converse and the other pedestrian, William J. Easterly, 28, Vanport, in "fair" condition.

Traffic Patrolman Howard Rogers and Walter Greene said the car's driver, Stancel C. Hott, Vancouver, told them he and his wife were arguing, and that he lost control of the car when she grabbed him by the neck.

Hott and his wife, Evelyn, were charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Hott was also booked on a reckless driving charge.
