Bed-Ridden "Stone Man" Full Of Cheer as He Looks on Life Through Special-Built Mirror

By ED JOHNSON
AP Newsfeatures.

GREAT FALLS, Mont.—He has been at Columbus hospital, stone stiff for 14 years, but everyone says Pat Rafferty is the personification of good cheer.

Rafferty is 54 now, and knows the arthritis which froze the muscles of his strong body and made him "the Stone Man," will not give in to any medical science yet known to man.

Pat was born in Ireland and came to America as a lad. He worked as a furniture mover and repairer and in the Anaconda Copper Mining Company's giant Great Falls smelter for many years before he was stricken.

Now he likes to do things for other people. He likes to help those in similar condition, and digs up many a dollar — via friends and letters, written by nurses.

Through a Looking Glass

Pat says he has a lot of fun, too, lying there in bed. He doesn't need anyone to tell him what takes place along Second Avenue, North. He has an intricate device set up over his bed, with a mirror placed so that he can see as much as a person standing at the window.

"I can see the women folks waiting on the corner for a car to pass," Pat explained. "And I see a pretty girl in slacks quite regularly. When my friends go by they wave at me, but of course, I can't wave back."

He can see everything that goes on in his room too. Up above the mirror a glass plate has been installed and Pat can read a paper or book or letter. All he needs is someone to stop now and then and turn the pages. He receives 15 to 25 letters a week from friends throughout the United States. He wants more.

He's Not Downhearted

"I don't have a bad time of it," says Pat. "It's not such a bad life as would make a man downhearted."

Pat's especially interested in sports and he likes it when such people as Jack Dempsey, Joe Louis, Strangler Lewis and professional baseball players visit him, as many have. His brother, Mike, and sister, Mrs. Allen Casey, visit him often, and Pat says he is happy.

The nurses—all of them in the hospital—take a special interest in him. Once in a while they take Pat to a ball game in a special ambulance and a special bed from which he watches the game.

Obtain Marriage License — A marriage license has been issued this week at Vancouver, Wash., to John Dionne, 32, Vanport City, and Ona Robertson, 32, Roseburg.

Moving to Vale—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Adair are moving from Elgarose to Vale, Oregon, where Mr. Adair will be one of the partners in a newly established garage business.

Visiting at Woodruff Home—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundeen of Project City, Calif., are visiting the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Woodruff, Elgarose.

Starting New Home—Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Williams, who recently purchased from C. E. Reese the plot of ground located across from the Melrose Grange hall, have started building a home here.

Potluck Dinner Tonight—The Edenbower Community Club will hold a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner tonight, May 10, at the school playshed. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

Retail Price Ceilings On Window Shades Upped

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—OPA yesterday raised retail price ceilings for window shades by from two to 12 cents.

Manufacturers' ceilings are being increased 15 to 20 per cent, effective immediately, to offset higher wage and material costs.

Dealers may not charge the higher retail prices until notified by manufacturers of the increase, OPA said.

MARY-MARTHA CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

SUTHERLIN — Mary-Martha Club of the Christian Church met in the East Wing of the church on Friday for a potluck luncheon and business meeting. Mrs. Royal Abeene, president, presided. Mrs. C. E. Lewis read the sixth chapter of Ephesians and led in prayer. In the absence of Naomi Murdock Mrs. Lewis acted as secretary. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Fourteen members answered roll call. Mrs. Sarpeta Saucerman, Miss Marie Shelbourne, Mrs. Maude Murphy, Mrs. Ada Abeene, Mrs. Grace Pope, Mrs. Katie Graham, Mrs. Mary Epps, Mrs. Ruth Lewis, Mrs. Minnie Abeene, Miss Ethel Manning, Mrs. Mary Selleck, Mrs. Alberdena Duncan and Mrs. Joseph Grover. We were happy to have Mrs. Anna Hall, Mrs. Junita Holgate and Mrs. Ruth Vogelphol with us also.

Mrs. Saucerman donated several articles with which we will start a "Needed Chest." She also presented to the club the large coffee pot in which she always kindly made coffee for our luncheons and larger dinners. With this there was given a large serving pitcher.

Plans were completed for the Mother-Daughter banquet to be given Friday evening, May 10, at 6:30 o'clock. The Mystery Mothers will entertain their Mystery Daughters and the real mother of each daughter. At this banquet the Mystery Mothers will be revealed to the Mystery Daughters. Mrs. C. E. Lewis is in charge of the banquet. Mrs. Harry Barker and Mrs. Ruth Vogelphol form the committee to decorate the tables.

After the adjournment of the meeting Mrs. Sarpeta Saucerman and her sister, Miss Marie Shelbourne, who are leaving Sutherlin May 10, to make their home in Kansas, were honored with a handkerchief shower.

We are losing two of our most faithful workers and two very dear friends as they leave our community. Our best wishes go with them.
