cause of her ongoing research into cannabinoid's medical applications. However, she also tells customers to consult with their physicians before and during use.

"I want to educate people about safe access," she said. "Colby and I are both very conservative and want people to have a positive association with the products. We teach people to journal so we can come up with something that is right for them. "We probably talk more people into not doing things than at the Lucky Leaf. They also plan to offer classes at the Bentley said Silverton shop.

customers can request products they may be using, but currently available at the Lucky Leaf. They also plan to offer classes at the Bentley said Silverton shop.

OBITUARIES

Douglas Keith Bonham

March 31, 1985 —
March 4, 2016
Douglas Keith Bonham of Silverton died tragically in a car accident near Molalla on March 4, 2016.

Born on March 31, 1985, to Nancy Armor and Mark Bonham in Everett, Washington, Douglas was the youngest of three siblings — Stacie Ann and Michelle René were his older sisters.

After high school, Douglas joined the United States Air Force in July 2002, where he served as an Aviation Resource Management Journeyman for nearly three years. While serving at Shaw AFB in South Carolina, Douglas married Megan Elaine Holsonbake on July 2, 2003. Their first child, Ayden Blake, was born on June 4, 2004.

That fall, Douglas began earning his first degree at University of South Carolina. In September 2005, Douglas received his Honorable Discharge from the U.S. Military. After earning his Bachelor's degree in business, he pursued his passion of teaching to earn his Masters of Education while congruently working as a part time teacher in Oregon in 2006.

Their second child, McKayla Juliet, was born May 19, 2007. As a fifth and sixth grade teacher at Bethany Charter School, he has become an immeasurable inspiration to those around him. Over the next several years, Douglas continued to grow in his faith and in his community as a leader and problem solver. He will be truly missed by those he left behind.

Douglas' legacy will live on in the hearts of those who knew him, as well as those who hear his story.

A memorial service was held on Saturday, March 12, at Dayspring Fellowship in Keizer. The service was followed by a community gathering at Silverton High School, where Douglas' friend and mentoree, Matthew Albrecht, was a flourishing student as a result of their bond. Matthew also died in the car accident. Arrangements with Unger Funeral Chapel.

Linda "Lynne" Ann Jordan

Sept. 23, 1946 —
March 5, 2016
Lynne Jordan, 69, passed away unexpectedly on March 5. She grew up in the Silverton hills, graduating from Silverton High School in 1964.

Lynne was married to the love of her life, Jerry Jordan, who was taken from her too soon in a tragic car accident in 1983. Lynne spent most of her life as a homemaker and home daycare provider while enjoying baking, sewing, gardening and bowling.

After Jerry's death, she began working at Montgomery Ward and continued to do so until they closed their doors in 2001. After that, she went back to home daycare, where she welcomed many children into her home where she was always considered "Gma" to all (especially Jessi Rae). Up until the week of her death, Lynne enjoyed working in her yard and garden and, of course, spending time with family.

She is survived by her son Michael; daughter Leanne; grandson Kyle (Auriel); granddaughters Amanda and Courtney; and great-grandchildren Westen and Meadow.

Linda's funeral service was held Saturday, March 12 at Unger Funeral Chapel in Silverton.

Internment took place at Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem.

Dale Lou Pahlman

April 26, 1939 — March 8, 2016

Dale Pahlman, 76, was born in Seattle, Washington, to Louie and Constance (Pattison) Pahlman, one of three children. He was raised and resided in Seattle, later meeting and marrying Cassandra Rose Schmaus on Dec. 14, 1963. Together they had three daughters, and they raised their children on Vashon Island, Seattle.

Dale owned and operated Dale's Carpet Care for many years in the Seattle area. In 1992, they moved to the Silverton area. Dale always enjoyed ongoing projects in his home. He was known as a "project enthusiast" to his family and had a very creative side. He enjoyed art, working with Burlwood and pyrographics. Dale also enjoyed the great outdoors and playing the piano.

He is survived by his wife, Cassie; daughters Clarie Leupitz, Laurie Kreutzer and Stacie Dodson; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; sister Becky Weins; and many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by a grandson and sister.

Memorial services were held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witnesses in Silverton.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel.

Matthew Kutnerian Albrecht

June 17, 1999 —
March 4, 2016

A memorial service for Matthew will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 19, at the Silverton High School gymnasium, 1456 Pine St.

Online condolences or memories can be shared at www.Forever-Missed.com/matthew-kutnerian-albrecht, and a GoFundMe page has been created at www.GoFundMe.com/8vt2xsq4.
