Diplomas will be awarded on all articles not here enumerated, that may be thought worthy, manufactured in this State, or elsewhere.

Rules for Racing—Trotting & Running.

RULE 1.—No person shall act as judge in any race on which he may have bet, or in which he may be interested.

RULE 2.—The persons entering for a race (or his proxy) will draw for position on the track, under the supervision of the judges.

RULE 3.—In all trials of speed, only three starts will be allowed, and any person who shall fail on the third trial shall be ruled off by the judges, but may have the privilege of going against the time of the race.

RULE 4.—In trotting and pacing races, all animals to carry one hundred and fifty pounds in addition to the vehicle.

Rule 5.—The premium will be withheld from one or both of the parties in any race, if in the opinion of the judges it is not a fair contest, as no jockeying or foul riding or driving will be allowed.

RULE 7.—Any animal or animals entered in a race may go against the time of the race, provided the intention so to do is stated to the judges before any of the animals start. Any animal bolting or flying the track may have the same privilege.

RULE 8.—Any animal that is not in readiness at the precise time appointed, shall forfeit all claims to the contest.

RULE 9.—The usual time between heats will be allowed. The weight for running will be—three years old, seventy-five pounds; four years old, eighty-five pounds; five years old, ninety-five pounds; six years old, one hundred and five pounds; seven years old, one hundred and eleven pounds.

RULE 10.—No racing shall be allowed on the Fair Grounds, but what is ordered by the Directors and under their control.

RULE 11—No persons shall be permitted to occupy the stand during trials of speed, but officers, judges and such persons as may be invited by the President; and no interference will be permitted in weighing riders.

General Rules.

RULE 1.—All articles on exhibition must remain throughout the fair, and no premium will be paid on any article or animal taken away before the close of the same, without a written permit by the President, and said permit must be placed on file by the Recording Secretary.

RULE 2.—All entries to be made by eleven o'clock of the second day.

RULE 3.—Articles entered for premium in the pavilion, including machinery, 15 per cent. entry fee, and the same rate for sheep and hogs at the pens. All other entries of stock 20 per cent., except for speed, embraced in Class III., which shall be 25 per cent.

RULE 4.—All animals competing for premiums, and all premium animals, must be paraded on the track at such time as the President, through the Marshal, shall designate. Premium animals with appropriate badges.

RULE 5.—Any person having animals or stock entered for premiums, or entered for speed, shall have the right to object to any judge upon the same wherein that competitor is interested, and the Superintendent shall fill the vacancy for that case.

General Remarks.

Hay and oats will be provided on the grounds at reasonable rates.

Good opportunities for camping, with plenty of wood and water.

The people in general, and especially the ladies, are requested to furnish pictures and other ornaments for the pavilion. They will be well cared for.

A general invitation is extended to the citizens of other counties in Oregon to participate in and compete for premiums at the approaching Fair.

The committees will be arranged and announced on the 2d day of the Fair.

All animals or articles that have heretofore received two first premiums to be barred out.

The pavilion Marshal shall have charge of the same, with power to appoint assistants, and such other duties as the Directors shall direct.

The Field Marshal shall have power to select his aids, to preserve order, and to perform such other duties as the Board of Directors shall direct.

The Board of Directors shall meet at the pavilion at nine o'clock A. M. of each day of the Fair.

The President shall have general supervision of the Fair ground and officers, and see that the laws, rules and regulations of the Association and Board of Directors are duly observed, and that the rights and privileges of exhibitors and persons are not abused.

Superintendents shall select three (3) persons as judges in their respective classes, and shall submit the same to the Board of Directors or President for approval.

Superintendants will report their attendance to the Directors by nine o'clock A. M. of the second day of the Fair.

The Board of Directors will use every precaution in their power for the safe preservation of all articles and stock on exhibition; but will not be accountable for fares or damage. Exhibitors must give attention to their articles or animals during the Fair, and at the close of the exhibition attend to their removal.

A Bill.

To provide a national currency of coin notes, and to equalize the distribution of circulating notes.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That forty-five millions of dollars in notes for circulation may be issued to national banking associations in addition to the three hundred millions of dollars authorized by the twenty-second section of the "Act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June three, eighteen hundred and sixty-four; and the amount of notes so provided shall be furnished to banking associations organized or to be organized in those States and Territories having less than their proportion under the apportionment contemplated by the provisions of the "Act to amend an act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved March three, eighteen hundred and sixty-five; but a new apportionment of the circulation hereinbefore provided for shall be made as soon as practicable, based upon the census of eighteen hundred and seventy.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That at the end of each month after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to report to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount of circulating notes issued to national banking associations during the previous month; whereupon the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem and retire an amount of the three per centum temporary loan certificates issued under the acts of March two, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and July twenty-five; eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, not less than the amount of circulating notes so reported; and may, if necessary, in order to procure the presentation of such temporary loan certificates for redemption, give notice to the holders, by publication or otherwise, that certain of said certificates, (which shall be designated by number, date, and amount, shall cease to bear interest from and after the date of such notice, and that the certificates so designated shall no longer be available as any portion of the lawful money reserve in the possession of any national bank, and after such notice no interest shall be paid on such certificates, and they shall not be counted as a part of the reserve of any banking association.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That after the expiration of six months from the passage of this act, any banking association located in any State having more than its proportion of circulation may be removed to any State having less than its proportion of circulation, under such rules and regulations as the Comptroller of Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may require: Provided, That the amount of the issue of said banks shall not be deducted from the amount of new issue provided for in this act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That upon the deposit of any United States bonds, bearing interest payable in gold, with the Treasurer of the United States in the manner prescribed in the nineteenth and twentieth sections of the national currency act, it shall be lawful for the Comptroller of the Currency to issue to the association making the same, circulating notes of different denominations not less than five dollars, not exceeding in amount eighty per centum of the par value of the bonds deposited, which notes shall bear upon their face the promise of the association to which they are issued to pay them upon presentation at the office of presentation, in gold or silver coin of the United States, and shall be redeemable upon such presentation in such coin.

SEC. 5.
