Veterans Called On For Refunds

Oregon offices of the Veterans Administration have received renewed instruction that recovery of subsistence allowance overpayments for veterans in training under the G. I. Bill should be made in a manner that will impose no hardship, Carlton R. Phillips, VA contact representative of southern Oregon, said today.

Any veteran whose subsistence has been suspended to balance prior to over-payments, and who can show that undue hardship is resulting, should apply to the VA regional office in Medford for a readjustment, Phillips advised.

The over payment followed wage ceilings set by congress for veteran trainees last August. To avoid sudden mass suspensions, the VA continued full subsistence payments pending receipt of monthly wage reports from the trainees.

Report forms sent to veterans contained the warning that any subsistence payments which put a trainee over the $175 or $200 income ceilings would be subject to recovery by the government. Many returned their over-payments voluntarily when received, but others chose to postpone the "day of reckoning," Phillips explained.

During December, 171 veterans in Oregon cleared up their overpayment with the VA. At the month's end, 2095 cases of overpayments totaling $151,702 were still outstanding, for which no recovery arrangements had been made. About 2000 trainees with over-payments are still drawing reduced subsistence.

Hanging Awaits 15 More Nazi Beasts

DACHAU, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The sentencing of 15 Flossenburg concentration camp operators to hang has brought to 221 the number of Germans given death sentences by American war crimes court, trial officials said yesterday.

Of the 40 convicted of participation in Nazi cruelties at the Flossenburg camp, where more than 25,000 prisoners died of starvation and abuse, 11 were sentenced to life imprisonment and 14 others to prison terms ranging from one to 30 years. More Flossenburg operators are scheduled for trial soon.

A total of 755 Germans have now been tried by American war crimes courts. Of these 660 have been convicted, with 221 sentenced to die and 439 given prison terms. Only 95 were acquitted.

The list of convicted war criminals includes operators of the Dachau and Mauthausen concentration camps and 73 SS men guilty of the mass murder massacre of captured American soldiers. Many were convicted of murdering Allied airmen shot down in Germany.

The Hawaiian Islands were ruled by monarchs until 1893.

Judge's Remark in Portal Suit Given Senate Group

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—A transcript of an alleged "pro-labor" remark by Federal Judge Frank A. Picard during one of the original portal pay trials was read today into the record of a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee.

The subcommittee is studying legislation to outlaw all back pay suits filed by labor unions in the wake of Judge Picard's decision that workers are entitled to compensation for the time spent getting ready for their jobs.

The transcript was submitted by Theodore R. Iserman, a New York attorney for the Chrysler Corporation, whose testimony earlier this week prompted Senator Eastland (D.-Miss.) to suggest that the House Investigate Judge Picard "with a view to impeachment."

Iserman testified Monday that Picard, while hearing a $250,000 portal pay suit brought against Chrysler by plant guards, remarked that he was "strictly pro-labor" and wanted "these men to get every penny that is coming to them."

The bolivar, unit of money in Venezuela, is named for Simon Bolivar who freed much of South America from Spanish rule.
