GREAT AMERICAN BOoK.

WE are glad to see, by a prospectus in a late number of the "Knickerbocker Magazine," that some of the literary friends of L. Gaylord Clark, Esq., the popular editor of this work, have devised a plan for his benefit. It is the publication of a splendid volume, composed of original articles written expressly for the book by fifty American authors, among whom are Washington Irving, Fitz Greene Halleck, Wm. C. Bryant, H. W. Longfellow, Donald G. Mitchel, G. W. Curtis, N. P. Willis, and others. The volume is to be illustrated with portraits of the writers, finely engraved on steel from original pictures, and promises to be in every way one of the most attractive books ever issued in this country. The object of the committee who have charge of the publication is to raise from the profits of the book a sum sufficient to purchase a Home for Mr. Clark, who has, for over twenty years devoted himself to his literary labors, and, as is too often the case, without reaping that reward which should by this time have made him independent.

We give the project our most hearty approbation and hereby authorize Mr. Hueston to put us on his list for five copies of the book in the best binding. The book is to be sold entirely by subscription, and we should think that, among the thousands who read the "Knickerbocker," ten thousand copies would be called for very soon. This would insure the success of the noble plan of the committee, and would prove a substantial and well-deserved compliment to one of the best editors in his line that our country can boast.

We will only add that the "Knickerbocker Gallery" is to be published by Mr. Samuel Hueston, 348 Broadway, New York, at five dollars per copy in cloth gilt, and seven dollars in morocco extra binding. Send your name at once to the publisher and secure an early copy.

LIFE ILLUSTRATED.

OUR NEW NEWSPAPER.

With the present number we issue a Prospectus for a New Weekly Newspaper.

It is not our purpose that this shall take the place of our Monthly Journals. Those have become intimately connected with our special business, and too much beloved by our subscribers to be dispensed with. But in these days of railroads and telegraphs, monthly visits seem insufficiently frequent. Our [illegible] steamers cross the Atlantic and return between every issue. Besides, we have not sufficient space in those Journals to convey information of the doings of the world. We therefore have concluded to publish, in addition to our Monthlies, to [illegible] who may desire it.

No Premiums! No Humbug!

[illegible]

Something new in the Literary World.

A MAMMOTH WEEKLY [illegible]

THOSE [illegible] weekly paper [illegible]

AMERICA'S OWN,

[illegible]

It is a paper of the large [illegible] and in its columns will be found, drawn from the Field of Literature, Biographies, Historical Reminiscences, [illegible] Stories, Sketches, Poetry, Travels, Essays, Anecdotes, Notices upon the Fine Arts, Mechanics, &c.

Particular care is taken to avoid those "humorous sketches" which please a low-class audience, but which are so disgusting to the refined taste of the Home circle.

The publishers do not adopt the quack system of saying that it "is the best paper in the world," or resort to the system of offering "jewelry," or premiums of any description, in order to "make people take it"; but depend upon its own merits to give it a circulation. They give the opinion of disinterested persons whose extensive knowledge enables them to judge correctly of its merits.

It is an excellent miscellaneous paper. Sunday Dispatch, N. Y.

The paper is a favorite with us, and we consider it one of the very best weeklies published. Gazette, Pottsville, Pa.

We consider it the best family newspaper published. Louisville Varieties.

A valuable Journal. It is conducted with great ability. Emporium, Germantown, Ohio.

It is the best paper in the State. Cadet's Banner, Utica.

This is second to none of its weeklies. Democrat, Wau[illegible]

It is a good family paper. Village Record, N. J.

This is one of the good papers of the day. It is one of the best papers on our exchange list. Eagle, Middletown, Ohio.

It is one of the best reform papers in the country. Sunday Mercury, Philadelphia.

It is an excellent family newspaper. Advocate, Stamford, Conn.

It is far ahead of any Eastern paper we have examined. It is a most welcome visitor to our sanctum, and we always greet its coming with delight. Its columns never fail to glisten with choice gems of Literature. Southern Illinoisan.
