Advance Entries No Advantage

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., April 8, 1909.

Registers and Receivers, United States Land Offices, Colorado, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, Arizona and New Mexico:

Gentlemen:—

It has been brought to the attention of this office that at certain offices applications for entry under the enlarged homestead act of February 19, 1909, Public No. 245, are being received and suspended. The following instructions are issued so that no misunderstanding may exist as to the rights of such applicants.

The instructions under this act have been approved but have not as yet been printed for distribution. The said instructions, however, contain the following:

"From time to time lists designating the lands which are subject to entry under this act will be sent you and immediately upon receipt of such lists you will note upon the tract books opposite the tracts so designated, 'Designated—Act February 19, 1909.' Until such lists have been received in your office no application to enter should be received and no entries allowed under this act."

You are, therefore, directed that any applications under said act, for lands not listed, should be immediately rejected and the parties notified that they will gain no rights by the filing of such applications or by appeal from the rejection thereof. No rights whatever can be acquired under said act, either by application or settlement, prior to the time the lists are received in the local land office. The instructions under this act will be forwarded within a very few days. Very respectfully,

FRED DENNETT,
Commissioner.

About School Teachers' Salaries

R. A. Ford, county school superintendent, has received the following letter from the state superintendent which is self-explanatory:

To County Superintendents—Gentlemen:

A number of letters have come to this department asking whether or not school boards are compelled by the Hawley act to pay teachers $50 a month. If your school officers have this wrong impression, will you please do what you can to correct it.

This law provides that each district must have at least six months of school each year; it also provides that each district must have a school fund of at least $300 each year, but it says nothing about teachers' salaries. If a school board can secure a teacher for less than $50 per month, the district can have a longer term than six months. The provision for a fund of $300 was included in the bill so as to make it possible for each district to have the required six months of school.

The new edition of the school laws will be ready for distribution about May 15. The legislature provided enough to furnish each school officer with one copy. Yours very truly,

J. H. ACKERMAN,
Supt. Public Instruction.

April 18, 1909.

Subscribers to a telephone company to the number of thirty met Friday evening, organized and appointed committees. A fuller report will be made after another meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood have moved into their new house in the suburbs and have had an addition built.

Mr. Mossman, who has been visiting here lately, has returned to his home in Seattle. Mrs. M. and son remain for a time at her parents, F. A. Kennard.

A complete surprise was worked on Mrs. Carl Ehret Tuesday night, and a jolly time was spent.

Saturday night was Woodman night, dance night, and a surprise by Mrs. Ehlers on George.

Mrs. Lauderback returned recently from Portland where she attended her father during his last illness.

Too much clover was the cause of H. A. Myers losing a cow recently.

Roy and Charlie Lowther were over from their studies at Prineville yesterday and today visiting their parents.

We know of several farms for rent in this neighborhood. It is time they were finding tenants for the season.

Mrs. Lowther and Iris leave in the morning for Los Angeles, where they will spend the summer.

W. L. McEwing has the Lowther farm just across Crooked river, rented for the season and will have in about two hundred acres of grain. E. C. Park.

D. I. & P. Co. Pushing Work.

The Deschutes Irrigation & Power company is prosecuting work with vigor on the segregation between Bend and the old river bed, constructing laterals to water all the land in the 8000-acre tract to which patent was recently obtained. They now have a force of 35 men and 14 teams at work under Thomas Langdon and are hiring all the men with teams they can, paying $4.75 per day for men with teams. It seems to be difficult just at this season to procure the services of teams as most all the ranchers are busy with their farm work at home. Main laterals have been construced crossing the Prineville-Bend road in five different places, and the work now being done is said to be of permanent character and some of the finest ever done by the company.

This is the tract, the irrigation of which was held up for about a week by a restraining suit brought against the company by A. M. Drake, who contended that the company was unlawfully watering the tract from the Pilot Butte Canal, when their contract called for the watering of it to be done from a canal taken out of the Deschutes below Bend.

But this objection has been set aside and the D. I. & P. Co. is now proceeding to get water to the settlers on the land who need it. The other canal diverting water from the Deschutes below Bend will be constructed at some future time.
