

OBITUARIES

Robert Lee Larson, Sr.

March 31, 1931 — Aug. 20, 2016

Bob Larson was born to Dorothy Dunning and Anton Larson in Newton, Iowa. He had five brothers (all of whom preceded him in death) and one sister, Louise. After high school graduation, he served in the Air Force during the Korean conflict with remote duty in Greenland. Thereafter, he married Wanda and began working in the field of banking, rising ultimately to the position of vice president.

After his retirement, Bob moved to Oregon to be close to family and to fulfill his lifelong desire to finish his college degree. He succeeded at this goal, graduating from George Fox University in 1998 at the age of 67. In 1999, he married Nancy Mills and became an active community member in Newberg. Larson participated in Habitat for Humanity, served on the local school board and held a position as a city councilman for four years. He was also active in his church, providing free financial counseling for many struggling young couples.

He graduated to heaven after a brief heart ailment on Aug. 20, 2016, following several years of decline due to dementia.

Bob is survived by his wife Nancy; sister Louise (Anderson) of Tucson, Arizona; son Robert (Andrea) Larson of Silverton; daughter Sandra (John) Little, of Arizona City, Arizona; stepson Justus (Brenda) Mills of Happy Valley; stepdaughter Paula (Dennis - deceased) Mills of Canby; stepdaughter Carla (Mike) Norton of Boise, Idaho; eight grandchildren; and many great grandchildren.

A memorial service is scheduled for 11 a.m. Sept. 10 at the West Chehalem Friends Church, 16700 NE North Valley Road in Newberg. There will be a private military interment ceremony at Wilamette National Cemetery for family members only.

Bruce Leroy Dickman

Feb. 5, 1925 — Aug. 27, 2016

Bruce Leroy Dickman, 91, passed away in Portland on Aug. 27, 2016.

He was born on Feb. 5, 1925, to Arthur and Maude (Beer) Dickman in Silverton. He graduated from high school and served in the armed forces. Bruce proudly served his country in WWII. During his time with the Navy, he was wounded in the Marshall Islands for which he received a Purple Heart. Bruce worked as a farmer growing gladiolus and daffodils. He was a lifelong member of the Elks Lodge in Silverton. Bruce enjoyed Navy reunions and loved visiting family and relatives.

He is survived by his stepson, Rod (Debbie) Bennion; granddaughters Katrina McFarland and Amanda Bennion; and great-granddaughter Macayla McFarland.

Bruce is preceded in death by his wife, Florence Dickman, who passed away on Feb. 16, 2016.

A funeral service with military honors was held Sept. 3 at Unger Funeral Chapel in Silverton. Burial was in Bethany Pioneer Cemetery in Silverton.

Lenore Irene (Kilgore) Voelsch

April 5, 1928 — Aug. 22, 2016

Lenore was born in Casper, Wyoming, to William and Claudia (Layton) Kilgore, the eighth of 12 children. She and her family moved to Oregon and settled in the Salem area, where she met Eugene Voelsch. They married at Silverton First Christian Church. Gene and Lenore lived in Salem for a time and later moved to Eugene, where they lived for many years. To this union they welcomed their two daughters Linda and Jeanne and later their two sons Boon and Chang.

Lenore spent her career working for Holt International Children's Services and later Pearl Buck Center in Eugene. She loved her family and friends above all else. Gene and Lenore attended University Street Christian Church for 40 years, and they were very involved in the church's activities. Lenore enjoyed music and reading, and had a passion for writing her "musings."

Lenore is preceded in death by her parents, husband and 10 siblings. She is survived by children Linda Voelsch, Jeanne Johnstone, Chang Ford, and Boon Tanyavutti; grandchildren Matthew Johnstone, Monica Ford, Neil Ford, Eric Tanyavutti and Justin Tanyavutti; great grandchildren Zoe Claire and Aden Kam Tanyavutti; brother Leon Kilgore; and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Lenore's life will take place at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 10, 2016, at Silverton First Christian Church. She will be laid to rest with her husband at Valley View Cemetery.

Arrangements are with Unger Funeral Chapel.

AmeriTitle Silverton hosts 'Big LeBocce'

APPEAL TRIBUNE

AmeriTitle Silverton held a charity bocce ball tournament, The Big LeBocce, Aug. 17 at the Oregon Garden. In partnership with AmeriTitle Salem, 256 people participated and $7,500 was given to nonprofits.

The Wall Street Wizards won the tournament. The team's designated nonprofit is the Alyce Hatch Center, which provides services to children with developmental delays.

The winners of the AmeriTitle sponsored costume contest also allocated funds to Silverton Area Community Aid and Virtue First.

The Big LeBocce is a fundraiser that has given $56,825 to communities in Silverton, Salem, and Bend.

City manager search continues

CHRISTENA BROOKS SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL TRIBUNE

MT. ANGEL - The city's search for a new manager continues, with an additional finalist joining the three remaining candidates at a meet-and-greet tonight.

Amber Mathiesen, currently Salem's city recorder, is the newest candidate in the search. She was previously the city manager for Falls City, and she holds a bachelor's degree in public administration from the University of Phoenix.

Gene Green removed his name from consideration last month. The remaining three candidates are Justin Hogue, Daniel Spencer and Darren Wertz.

Hogue has been Mt. Angel's assistant city manager for two years and holds a master's degree in human resource administration from Boston University. Spencer is an attorney who served as counsel for Lake County. His law degree is from Willamette University. Wertz most recently served as manager of the Clark County Board of Equalization in Washington and holds a master's degree in economics from the University of Oregon.

The four candidates are available to meet the media and community tonight, Sept. 7, from 5:30 to 5:45 p.m. in the Mt. Angel Community Room, 290 E. Charles Street. At 6 p.m., the council will interview them, with a final selection possibly occurring after that.
