Since the passage of the bill for subsidizing steamers which carry the mails the Shipbuilders' union has increased in membership fully 50 per cent.

Thousands of frogs' legs are shipped from Mount Clemens, Michigan, daily. The hunters make from $3 to $4 a day gathering them.

The ministers of finance and imperial property propose to establish a line of steamers between St. Petersburg and Havre, with a view of promoting direct trade between Russia and France.

According to the latest statistics the business exchange of the Congo state is developing very rapidly. The exports in 1887 were valued at 1,980,441 francs; 1888, 2,600,809; 1889, 4,297,543; 1890, 5,342,199. The imports for that term amounted to 12,720,000 francs.

FARMING IN FOREIGN LANDS

According to present indications the coffee crop of Brazil for 1891-92 will be, at the minimum, 4,500,000 to 5,000,000 bags.

The cultivation of tobacco in British North Borneo is rapidly increasing. The output for last year was a million and a half pounds.

The exports of flaxseed from Argentina are 40,000 to 85,000 tons per annum, half of it going to Great Britain and twenty per cent. to the United States.

Near Milan, Italy, 22,000 acres of land, irrigated with water from the city sewers, are yielding crops of from eight to ten tons of hay as a rule, while occasionally some separate meadows will yield even larger amounts.

The rape seed acreage of the Punjab, India, is 411,200 acres, being 113,200 acres in excess of last year. The crop is expected to be a very good one. The wheat area this year is 7,254,203 acres, or 1,011,300 more than last year.

Small farms are the rule in Sweden, and the Swedish peasant usually owns the soil he tills. Over two-thirds of the farms are between five and fifty acres in extent, and more than 23 per cent. are little homesteads of less than five acres.

THIS GRAND REPUBLIC.
