EXTENSION OF EAST SEVENTEENTH STREET.

Whereas, The Council of the City of Portland, deeming it expedient to open, lay out and establish an extension of East Seventeenth street, in the City of Portland, from Holgate street to Harold street, did on the 2d day of March, 1904, direct the City Engineer to survey the same and to mark the boundaries thereof, and to make a plat of such survey, and a written report containing a full and perfect description of such proposed street and the boundaries thereof, and of the portion of each lot, tract or part of either, to be appropriated for such street, and the City Engineer having made such survey, plat and report, and filed such plat and report in the office of the Auditor of the City of Portland on the 20th day of March, 1904, and said report having been adopted by ordinance No. 13,004, entitled: "An ordinance adopting the report of the City Engineer in the matter of the proposed opening, laying out and establishing of East Seventeenth street from Holgate street to Harold street.

Now, therefore, all persons interested are hereby notified that the Council of the City of Portland has appointed H. J. Morrison, Henry Jones and J. Kelly viewers, to view said proposed extension of said street and make an estimate of the benefits and damages occasioned by the opening, laying out and establishing the same, in accordance with section 349 of the charter of the City of Portland, said viewers to meet at the office of the Auditor of the City of Portland on Thursday, the 19th day of May, 1904, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

The proposed opening, laying out and establishing of East Seventeenth street is 60 feet in width and is more particularly bounded and described as follows:
