DO IT NOW

If you've got a job to do, Do it now!
If it's one you wish were through, Do it now!
If you're sure the job's your own, Do it now!
Don't am and haw and groan—Do it now!
Don't put off a bit of work, Do it now!
It doesn't pay to shirk, Do it now!
If you want to fill a place And be useful to the race, Just get up and take a brace—Do it now!
Don't linger by the way, Do it now!
You'll lose if you delay, Do it now!
If the other fellows wait, Or postpone until it's late, You hit up a faster gait—Do it now!

The Electric Road

The recent railroad talk has caused the Bard of Summerville to spout forth a few lines with reference to the same. If the survey for the road causes such a bust what will happen to him when the grading is commenced is a problem too deep for us.

Summerville, Elgin, Union and Northern Points Railroad

Hark! I hear the train a coming,
Over the Summerville grave yard hill;
There's the engine see her standing
In the town of Summerville.
She goes right along up mill creek,
At the foot of Pumpkin Ridge Hill,
She turns the Nelder Canyon,
By the Wade & Wright's sawmill.
She turns down on Phillip's Creek,
Close by the John Hug slope;
There she is in Elgin.
Don't you see her smoke?

She leaves Elgin, goes down the river,
And hunts the lowest pass
She leaves the Grand Ronde to the right
And takes up the Looing Glass.
She winds around those canyons
Over ridges high until she vanishes
Far from the view of eye.
Then through the lovely timber along
By the Looking Glass
She crosses over the summit close by
The Woodard Pass.
Then over those deep canyons
You will hear her lovely hum,
She rushes out in Milton;
Long by the Tillikum
Then to Walla, Walla another railroad town
There connects the Northern Pacific that runs to Puget Sound.
Now all of our little towns have some thing of which they can boast.
For we will have an outlet clear to the Pacific coast.

Farewell to Walla Walla, Farewell to Milton to.
Farewell to Elgin and to Summerville adieu.

Memorable Meeting

Important Paper Read at Meeting of Neighborhood Club.

One of the most interesting meetings that the Neighborhood Club has held since its institution in this city, and consequently one of the most interesting of its kind, in the history of La Grande, was held at the parlors of the Club in their rooms at the Commercial Club Building Tuesday afternoon. The meeting, and the program was conducted under the leadership of Mrs. Lyle. "The History of Union County" was the principal topic of the meeting, and the perseverance and research the members had exercised in preparing themselves on this subject deserves great commendation. The articles prepared may, in days to come, be a part of, or at least assist in making, the records of our grand state of Oregon. There was a good attendance, and the afternoon was passed pleasantly. All who were present came away feeling that they had been greatly benefited by being present. Beside the important papers read, the time was beguiled with exquisite music and friendly conversation. The program was as follows:—

History of Union County.—Miss Slater.
A talk on Pioneer Days.—Mrs. Geo. H. Currey
Duet "I Would That My Love"—Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Neill.
A Short Sketch of the Life of the Late Major Kellogg.—Mrs. Slater.

$1,687,500

The Bulletin just issued by the United States Government, after months of careful research, shows that in the Western States, the average family purchases annually goods to the amount of $750

On this basis the 2250 families visited with each issue of the Daily and Weekly OBSERVER annually purchase merchandise to the amount of $1,687,500

The natural logical conclusion cannot be otherwise than that no wide-awake business man who will take the few moments necessary to convince himself of the accuracy of the above statement, can afford to miss the opportunity of placing his announcements (25,500 each month) before this army of purchasers.

An ad under such conditions, properly taken care of will most certainly bring enormous returns on the investment.

Should receive the most careful consideration of every business house whose volume of business depends upon the patronage of this city and county,
