Seeks Treasure of Lost Ships Under River Beds

MILES CITY, Mon.—Treasures of lost ships, buried under the shifting sands of the Yellowstone and Missouri rivers will be sought by Elmore Ellsworth Wenner, who has spent a quarter of a century gathering information as to their location and possibility of recovery.

In the skeletons of these treasure ships, Wenner believes, still remain quantities of the cargoes of priceless pelts, gold, silver, quicksilver and various articles of merchandise, the value of which government reports indicate to approximate fifty million dollars. A portion of the cargo of one wreck, buried for thirty years, Wenner already has salvaged.

Steamboating on the northern waters of the Missouri river began 103 years ago when a fleet of six river steamers were built under government contract for use with the ill-fated Yellowstone military expedition which had as its object the establishment of a fortified post at the mouth of the Yellowstone river.
