Kaiser-Frazer Cuts Car Output; Credit Rule Hit

DETROIT, Jan. 14—(AP)—Kaiser-Frazer Corp yesterday ordered a production cut at which it had hinted earlier in a complaint against credit restrictions.

The automobile company announced a "temporary reduction," effective next week, and said its action was caused by the government's anti-inflation limitations on installment buying.

Earlier this week Kaiser-Frazer said the restrictions were cutting into its car sales and threatening a "spiral of unemployment" in the auto industry.

About four months ago the Federal Reserve Board revived its wartime regulation "W" which limited time payments. A car buyer now must complete an installment purchase within 15 to 18 months. Previously he had 24 to 30 months.

Do you suppose this will go down in history as the winter of the Big Freeze? It's fine weather for Polar Bears, but THEY all have fur coats.

Your girl may have cold hands, but you can warm her heart with a valentine from the BEE-HIVE. There are all sizes of lacy numbers at prices ranging from 5c to $1.00 You can buy one for your wife, mother, teacher, husband, or sweetheart, with such sentiments as:

"Memories of happy moments—
Special joys I've shared with you—
And a lot of pleasant wishes
For the future, darling, too . . ."

LESTER'S GIFT SHOP will frame your pictures, mirrors, diplomas, certificates, or needlework mottoes, to your order in any size gold or silver metal frames. Hardwood frames of odd sizes in easel-back styles are finished in walnut, mahogany, or natural wood trimmed with gold. Photographs framed in wood are distinctive and different, and just as good for wall-hanging display as expensive oil paintings.

Opportunity always looks bigger going than coming.

Wool felt berets in light bright colors are new at EXCEL DRESS SHOPPE. Off-the-face models in flame, turquoise, or chartreuse are trimmed with eye veils or face veils, rolled tuck brims, and big brown or black sequin coin dots. A powder blue in a modified Eugenie style has a face veil and bobbed navy blue feathers. Brighten your wintry gray and black costumes with a gay new hat from Excel.

A literary critic is a person who finds meaning in literature that the author didn't know was there.

"Getting t. b. in the middle of your life is like . . . being hit by a bus," observes Betty MacDonald in "The Plague and I," non-fiction best-seller at MILLER'S RENTAL LIBRARY. One of a number of currently popular "horror tales," this book lacks the dramatic impact of "The Snake Pit," but it develops with humor and ends with far more optimism. Ask Mrs. Wishart to put your name on the list for "The Plague and I," or one of these other new books: "Castle in the Swamp," by Edison Marshall; "Hickory Stick," by Virgil Scott; "Kissing Kin," by Elswyth Thane; or "Remembrance Rock," by Carl Sandberg.

Other cold weather apparel is selling at reduced prices, this week, at the CLOVER EXCHANGE. Included are:

Knitted wool gloves in navy blue, bright red, and a red-and-white pattern with white palms, at ..... $2.50 pr.
Man's slip-on sleeveless sweater, teal and ivory, size 42, in a nubby seed stitch, at $10.00
Child's knitted dress, of fine baby floss in blue, size 2, a dainty patterned knit, at $6.95
Girl's 2-piece cotton broadcloth dress, blue skirt and blue-and-white print cardigan jacket, size 5, at $2.25
Girl's 2-piece cotton dress, Indian Head suiting, brown skirt with embroidered yellow cardigan jacket, size 6, at $3.25

These sparkling frosty mornings are quite enjoyable, if you are dressed for it in a Pendleton shirt from J. V. SPORTING GOODS STORE. All wool, in checks, solid colors, and shadow plaids, they are available in men's or women's sizes and styles. J. V. has Pendleton blankets to keep you warm at night, too—in red, grey, brown, white, or green solid colors. But the Real News is about the "Seattle" quilted down-filled vests and jackets. Of waterproof khaki twill with quilted lining, the sports models are just what you need for winter steelhead fishing. A more dressy model for street wear is made of tan twill and lined with sleek brown satin. Zipper fronts on both models, of course. The sleeveless vests of similar fabric and construction look as if they'd be grand for either men or women to wear under their coats, these chilly days.

Stand still and silently watch the world go by—and it will!

JOSSE'S have put curtains on sale, as you know from their ads in Wednesday's and Thursday's papers. These include "Sunset House" novelty curtains for kitchen or bath in ruffled priscillas, panel tie-backs, or cottage sets of figured marquisette in white and colors. Bedroom and living-room priscillas of pin-dot or chenille-dot cotton marquisette, are in white and colors, too. And there are pin-dot panels and spider-net lace panels, for almost any style of home decoration.

Children's silver flatware and holloware is now available at ASHCRAFT'S individually or in sets suited to children of various ages. An 1847 Rogers Brothers 3-piece Junior set in the romantic "First Love" pattern, includes knife, fork, and spoon. A single Pablum spoon in the same design would make a dandy marmalade spoon after the child has outgrown it. Ashcraft's still have the Stepup Set, too, in the same design, which has the Pablum spoon, Educator fork - and - spoon, and 3-piece Junior set boxed together. Sterling pieces include baby fruit cups, mugs, fork and spoon sets, dumbbell-shape rattle, and tinkling silver bell on a plastic teething ring. Baby showers are always in season, here, and nothing could be more gratefully received than baby silverware.
