Notice

In the County Court for Hood River County, State of Oregon.

In the Matter of the Application of Fred Henry Smith to Change His Name.—Order Changing Name of Fred Henry Smith to Fred Henry Schaer.

Now coming on for hearing the petition of Fred Henry Smith, duly verified by the petitioner on the 4th day of February, 1910, and filed in this cause and court on the 5th day of February, 1910, setting forth grounds of the application as follows to-wit:

John A. Schaer, the father of petitioner, was married to petitioner's mother in the state of Iowa about thirty-four years ago, and they lived together as husband and wife, about twelve years, when petitioner's mother died at Davenport, Nebraska, sometime in the summer of 1888, when petitioner was eight years of age; and about one year after the death of petitioner's mother, his said father re-married in the state of Iowa and a few months after said marriage, his second wife, whose name was Rose Collamore, deserted said petitioner's father in said state of Iowa, and about eight months after said second marriage petitioner's said father secured a divorce from said second wife and in order to prevent said second wife obtaining alimony, said petitioner's father assumed the name of "John A. Smith" instead of his own name, John A. Schaer, and retained said name thereafter, as his real name; that said petitioner believes that said father is dead, and that his father resided, until about nine years ago, with said petitioner, in the city of St. Paul, in the state of Minnesota; that on or about the first day of April, 1901, the father of petitioner left his home for the far West, and petitioner has not heard from, or of his said father for more than seven years last past, and petitioner believes that his said father is dead; that petitioner is now residing in a house belonging to Charles Schaer, who is the brother of said petitioner's said father, and that there are other members of the said Schaer family living; that the premises considered, petitioner's name of "Smith" has no pleasant associations connected with it, and said name never was his real name, but petitioner alleges that he has acquired and sold real estate under the name "Fred Henry Smith," but that petitioner really finds himself in the position of a man without a name that is pleasing or agreeable to him, although petitioner has gone by the name of "Fred Henry Smith" for about twenty years; that petitioner believes, by thus changing his name, it would be of great advantage to him, as the name "Smith" is so common, that he feels he is just one of a herd, while his father's real name, "Schaer," is an unusual name, and has clustered around it all the associations of his early childhood, and his early home, and that it would be of pecuniary benefit in regard to matters of business, mayhaps of inheritance, and he is anxious to effect such change, that petitioner has no other reason for desiring such change in name, and is not aware of any objections to said petition, nor does he know of any reason that can be raised against it.

And it appearing that in pursuance of the law in such cases made and provided in section 5237, Bellinger & Cotton's Annotated Codes of Oregon, that public notice has been given by proof of publication thereof, in the Hood River News, a newspaper of general circulation, published weekly in Hood River, in Hood River county, state of Oregon, for four weeks and for five insertions thereof, consecutively, the first publication of which notice was the 9th day of February, 1910, and which notice directed that all persons should offer and should cause, if any they have, why the petition to change the name of the applicant, should not be granted, and it appearing to the court by said petition, and affidavit of publication, that said Fred Henry Smith resides in the city of Hood River, county of Hood River and state of Oregon, the county in which this court is situate, and that said applicant is more than twenty-one years of age, and the court being satisfied by such petition that there is no reasonable objection that said petitioner should assume another name, and that said publication is in all things regular and that all the proceedings had herein are regular and according to law;—

It Is Therefore Ordered, on this the 12th day of March, 1910, that Fred Henry Smith be and he hereby is authorized to assume the name of Fred Henry Schaer, from and after the 13th day of March, 1910, and that within ten days from this date the said petitioner do cause a copy of this order to be published in the Hood River News, a public newspaper, printed in said county of Hood River, according to the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided; that said notice be published for four weeks and for five insertions thereof, and that upon return of the proof thereof, a certificate, under the seal of the court, signed by the clerk thereof, shall issue, showing that the applicant's name is now and shall hereafter be Fred Henry Schaer, and that said name shall hereafter be his legal name.

Ordered this 12th day of March, 1910.

A. J. Derby
11-15-e County Judge.
