CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(AP).—Wheat went up in price today and corn down, chiefly owing to large scale operations of "spread" traders, who simultaneously bought wheat and sold corn. The rise of wheat values was aided by export purchases of 1,250,000 bushels of North American wheat, mostly Canadian.

Closing quotations on wheat were firm, 5-8@¾c to 1c a bushel net higher. Corn future deliveries finished irregular, varying from ¼c decline to 1-8c advance, with oats 1-8c to ¼c off.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The long-predicted reaction in the stock market came in the last hour of trading today, when a flood of selling swamped the facilities of the exchange, and frightened investors made frantic efforts to sell out before the closing gong. A long list of stocks closed 5 to 14 points lower. The ticker dropped far behind the transactions, and did not print the last transaction until 47 minutes after the close. Total sales exceeded 4,500,000 shares.

The selling movement had all of the ear marks of a "bear" raid, timed to take advantage of the heavy week-end profit taking and touch off a large volume of stop loss orders.

The liquidation was directed particularly against the high priced issues. Automotive shares as a group were carried lower, although Jordan touched a new high at 18½ on rumors that W. C. Durant, who is returning from Europe tomorrow, plans to merge it with another company. Studebaker dropped 4 5-8 points to 74⅛ and closed at 76. Murray corporation fell to 106½, a net loss of 7¼. Chrysler dropped 7 5-8 points to 125 in heavy selling but recovered 2 points.

Western Union was a strong feature of the early trading, mounting more than 8 points to a new top at 191, but falling back to 184 at the close. Steels were generally carried lower, U. S. falling 3½ points, Crucible 4¾, and Bethlehem more than a point.
