To Oregonians in Bad Health.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO THE SICK! It is awful to note the haggard, sallow, cadaverous faces and wasted skeleton forms we meet! This is not confined to the old, but we see the young, able-bodied, and those in the prime of life, complain after being here some time of illness; some grow unnaturally fat suddenly; others waste and grow thin; they cannot localize or describe their disease, yet they feel universally unwell, mentally and physically; some have pains and weakness in the breast, limbs, or body; they feel a want of muscular and mental energy, a want of animation, and have fearful forebodings for the future, poor appetite, nervous irritability, and sleeplessness; their skin is dry, and occasionally flushed and heated, thin, pallid, and yellow.

Now sudden deaths, lunacy, and universal debility is too, too prevalent here; and who wonders, when combined with a climate like this, a dry air impregnated with electricity and galvanism? We have many who have passed through sickness, whose life is intemperate and debauched, or have seen others who have been nearly doctored to death by quack medicines, or by the advice of "The Faculty," who have impregnated them with mercury, calomel, &c.

For all such cases is Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorating Cordial Sanguifier most especially adapted, inasmuch as the above cases and symptoms did Dr. Webber minutely study in adapting his cordial to their cure. It enlivens the torpid liver, ejects all billious matter from the system, causes sudation, or free perspiration (so necessary to health), purifies and enriches the blood, gives strength to the limbs and body, and is positively infallible in all nervous diseases, trembling, or wakefulness.

There never was a remedy which gave such delight to the sufferer as this. The Agent can, from his own knowledge of cures effected by it, conscientiously recommend it in any of the following diseases: Nervousness, weakness, languor, loss of appetite, sleep, or strength, trembling, low spirits, decay of the natural functions, pains in the head, limbs, or body, neuralgic or rheumatic, and it often restores those to health and strength whose constitutions are almost broken.

DEBILITY FROM DISEASE, CLIMATE, DISSIPATION, OR DEBAUCHERY.—Strength, vivacity, and vigor to the limbs, body, and mind, is given by Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorating Cordial—it sends an electric thrill of life through the worn-out body, weak limbs, and broken-down constitutions; gives an appetite, removes dyspepsia, calms irritability, causes quiet sleep, and is indeed the finest tonic, nervine and sanguifier, ever made. It is purely a vegetable compound, and can be used by the most delicate female. The reader is conscientiously assured it is all it is represented.

☞ In quart bottles price $3—or two for $5.
