Across the Sea.

I walk'd in this lonesome evening,
And who recall as I,
When I saw the young men and maidens
Merrily passing by!
To thee, my love, to thee—
So fain would I come to thee!
While the ripples fold upon sands of gold,
And I look across the sea.

I stretch out my hands, who will clasp them?
I call, thou replieest no word:
O, why should heart-longings be weaker
Than the waving wings of a bird!
To thee, my love, to thee!
So fain would I come to thee!
For the tide's at rest from east to west,
And I look across the sea.

There's joy in the hopeful morning,
There's peace in the parting day,
There's sorrow with every lover
Whose true love is far away.
To thee, my love, to thee—
So fain would I come to thee!
For the water's bright in the still moonlight,
As I look across the sea. W. A.

—London Athenæum.

☞ We read that in certain climates of the world the gales that spring from the land carry a refreshing perfume out to sea, and assure the watchful pilot that he is approaching to a desirable and fruitful coast, when as yet he cannot discern it with his eyes. And, to take up the comparison of life to a voyage, in like manner it fares with those who have steadily and religiously pursued the course which Providence has pointed out to them. We shall sometimes find by their conversation towards the end of their days, that they are filled with peace, and hope, and joy, which like those refreshing gales and reviving odors to the seamen, are breathed forth from paradise upon their souls; giving them to understand with certainty that God is bringing them unto their desired haven.

The World.—Oh! you that dote upon the world, for what victory do you fight? Your hopes can be crowned with no greater reward than the world can give: what is the world but a brittle thing full of dangers, wherein we travel from lesser to greater perils! Oh! let all her vain, light momentary glory perish with herself, and let us be conversant with more eternal things. Alas! this world is miserable; life is short, and death is sure.—St. Augustine.

The Body Politic.—Quaint old Fuller says: Let him who expects one class of society to prosper in the highest degree, while the other is in distress, try whether one side of his face can smile while the other is pinched.

☞ He who rears up one child in Christian virtue, or returns one fellow-creature to God, builds a temple more precious than Solomon's or St. Peter's; more enduring than earth or heaven.—Channing.

☞ Facts, facts! cries every pretender to discoveries in intellectual science. But the world is full of misunderstood, misstated, or pretended facts. Fraud, enthusiasm, and narrow mindedness often shape the premises to fit the conclusion.

☞ We fret against the doubtful, but submit to the inevitable.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD,

SCROFULA, MERCURIAL DISEASES, STUBBORN ULCERS, RHEUMATISM, CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, BRONCHITIS, SALT RHEUM, CONSUMPTION, FEVER SORES, ERYSIPELAS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, LOSS OF APPETITE, PIMPLES, BILES, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c.

Every resolving year confirms and spreads further and wider the well merited reputation and deserved popularity of this invaluable Medicine, proving it to be the most efficacious remedial agent known, for the cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood. As a mild aperient, antiseptic and tonic, it contains the three most useful properties of medicine. It purges, purifies, and restores. The rapidity with which the patient recovers under this triple influence is surprising. Each new case in which it is applied furnishes in the result a new certificate of its excellence; and we have only to point to the accumulated testimony of multitudes who have experienced its effects, to convince incredulity itself of its real value.

HEALTH AND STRENGTH

Another Cure of Scrofula.

Troy, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1854.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Gentlemen,—I have for nearly three years been troubled with that dreadful disease, Scrofula; so much so, as to be offensive to my husband and to myself; and to obtain relief have tried every kind of medicine that came under my notice, without effect. One of my neighbors, who had been cured of a similar complaint by your Sarsaparilla, advised me to make a trial of it, and I can truly say that it has done me a world of good, having completely cured me. Hoping that my evidence may induce others similarly affected to adopt the same remedy, with the same satisfactory results, I remain gratefully yours,

SARAH A. J. POHLMAN.

Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, No. 100 Fulton-street, New York.

CLOVE ANODYNE
TOOTHACHE DROPS.
Complain no more of Aching Teeth.

These Drops have been extensively used by thousands, whose experience has proved that the Anodyne will give immediate and permanent relief after the failure of every other remedy. It is pleasant to the taste and smell, and a few applications will entirely remove the pain and soreness from a decayed tooth, so that it may be filled and rendered as useful as ever. When the pain proceeds from the face, or from the gums around a tooth apparently sound, this Anodyne will give a speedy relief by rubbing a few drops on the part affected.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER,
Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!

To all with bad or failing health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretions in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery, Constitutional Weakness, &c.,

DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMATURE OR NATURAL WEAKNESS OF THE FUNCTIONS, NERVOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, CONSTIPATION, WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION:

Dr. Webber's Sanguifier

is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills, Ague Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured.

Mr. Uriah Weeks, who arrived from Panama March 24, completely prostrate, weak, and scarcely able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the bones, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Cordial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ!

DEAR SIR, AND GOOD FRIEND.—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief.—Two bottles of your Cordial have benefitted me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.
