

Church Wedding Rites Unite Wilma Yaw, John C. Spray

Wilma Grace Yaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Jackson, became the bride of John C. Spray, son of Mrs. Beulah Spray, all of La Grande, in the prayer room of the First Christian church, May 15. The Rev. Lawrence Abia performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Duane (Gay) Wilson was organist, and Mrs. Stanley Day and Edward Harms were soloists. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white snapdragons and gladioli. The bride wore a light blue suit with fur trim, her accessories were rose and she carried a white Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Mrs. Stanley Day was the best man to the groom.

Jimmy Yaw, bride's five year old son, was Bible bearer.

The mother of the bride wore for the occasion a black and white afternoon dress with black and white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore a green afternoon dress, black accessories and also a pink rosebud corsage.

The reception was held in the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Everett Abbott served the wedding cake, which she also made and decorated. It was a three tiered cake with garlands of roses and bells. Mrs. Stanley Day poured. Assisting were the Misses Cheryl Day, Linda Hensley and Sheryl Hensley.

The newlyweds are honeymooning to Southern California. For her traveling the bride wore a rose knit dress, beige coat and accessories.

The couple will be home at 203 1/2 N avenue after June 1.

The bride is dental assistant to Dr. A. V. Pflugrad, Elgin, and the groom is employed by the Union Pacific Railroad.
