U. S.-Canadian Survey Of Railroad Held Probable

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Senator Magnuson (D.-Wash.) said Thursday he hopes President Truman will set in motion soon machinery for a joint American-Canadian survey of a railroad to Alaska.

The senator said after a White House visit Mr. Truman expects to sign next week legislation authorizing the President to negotiate with Canada for the survey.

He told a reporter he hopes the President will direct the state department to open negotiations with Canada immediately. He said he believes the survey could be completed within one year.

Under study will be a proposal to build a 1,400-mile railroad from Prince George, B. C., to connect with the Alaska railroad. Magnuson estimated it could be built for $200,000,000. The army estimated several years ago the cost would be $112,000,000.
