YOUTH HOLD DINNER SKATING PARTY

More than fifty young people met at the Sutherlin Christian church last Friday evening for a baked bean supper, preceding a skating party at Roseburg.

As the group sat down at the three long tables, choruses were sung and the blessing was asked by Mr. Whitford.

At the close of the meal, slips of paper under many of the plates revealed orders for the stunts to be performed by the holder. These covered a wide range of activity. Several persons found that their "stunt" was to help on the clean-up committee.
