On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When is the double card for man and wife in good use?

A. It is sent with wedding presents, with flowers to a funeral, with gifts to high school or college graduates, or with any other gift that comes from both. It is, of course, also used for formal visits.

Q. If a man brings a gift when calling on a girl, should she open it immediately, or lay it aside until he has gone?

A. She would show an extreme lack of breeding and manners if she laid it aside. She should open it at once.

Q. Is it necessary that one bid each person good-by indicidually, when leaving a group of persons to whom one has just been introduced?

A. No; one cordial "good-by" can include the entire group.
