Anti-Bribery Bill Given Scant Chance in Japan

TOKYO, May 13 (AP) — The Japan Times believes a proposed law prohibiting bribery has little chance.

"Such a measure," it reported, "will face opposition since it is bound to raise heated controversy among the Diet (parliament) members — who will be affected the most."

* Classified ads will be run in both papers to give advertisers the advantages of the tremendous combined circulations.

 When an ad is ordered three or six times and a Sunday issue is included (for example Friday, Saturday Sunday) the lower Sunday rates apply because only The Statesman publishes Sundays.

Classified ads will start in the morning Oregon Statesman, conclude in the evening Capital Journal — but ads will be accepted for Sunday Statesman only.

The deadline for classified ads is 1:00 p.m. the day before publication except for Sunday when deadline is 5:30 p.m. Friday. Emergency ads and small line ads received after 1:00 p.m. weekdays and until 12 noon Saturday for Sunday may be placed in the "Too Late to Classify" column.

Ads for Monday papers must be in by 1 p.m. Saturday.

The Statesman-Journal Newspapers reserve the right to reject questionable advertising; it further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman-Journal Newspapers assume no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns and in cases where this paper is at fault will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs.

A "Blind" Ad—an ad containing a Statesman-Journal Newspapers box number for an address — is for the protection of the advertisers and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman-Journal Newspapers are not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an adevrtiser using a "Blind" ad.

THIS NEWSPAPER STRIVES to protect its readers against fraud, deception, or injuries. Readers are cautioned to make NO PAYMENTS to get a position advertised in the help wanted columns. All help wanted ads MUST SPECIFY THE NATURE OF THE WORK. Sales help wanted ads must state if the pay is in the form of salary, commissions, guarantee, or include firm name. Bona fide offers or employment with pay belong in the Help Wanted columns.

Ads in other columns which require investment in stocks, samples, equipment or cash bond should be thoroughly investigated before paying out any money. Advertisers requiring a cash investment for samples or merchandise, sales aids, etc., must so specify in their ads.
